'Midsummer Night' comes to Sem

Magic and romance will flirt with drama and comedy when the Wyoming Seminary Middle School Players present one of Shakespeare's most revered plays, "A Midsummer Night's Dream," at 7 p.m. on Friday, Feb. 18 in the Amato Auditorium at the Lower School, 1560 Wyoming Ave., Forty Fort. An encore performance will also be held at 7 p.m. on Saturday, Feb. 19.

This production is open to the public; donations will be taken at the door and all proceeds will benefit area charities.

One of Shakespeare's earliest comedies, "A Midsummer Night's Dream" may have been written as entertainment for a wedding, according to some Shakespeare scholars. The story describes the attractions, jealousies and eventual successful marriages of two sets of lovers, all complicated by the antics of a mischievous, magical fairy.

As the couples chase each other through an enchanted forest, the king and queen of the fairies also play out an amusing story of love and one-upmanship, and a clumsy troupe of amateur actors present a hilariously inept re-enactment of an ancient myth.

Students invited to participate in PAI at Sem

Students between the ages of 12 and 18 years interested in musical theater and who want to participate in this summer's Performing Arts Institute (PAI) at Wyoming Seminary College Preparatory School in Kingston are invited to compete for PAI scholarships in March.

The first round of the competition will be held on Sunday, March 20, at the Upper School's Buckingham Performing Arts Center on North Sprague Avenue.

Contestants should register before 4 p.m. on Friday, March 18 by filling out the Musical Theater Scholarship Competition registration form at www.wyoming-seminary.org; click on the musical theater scholarship banner found at the bottom of the home page.

For more information, call the PAI office at 270-2186.
