GO FIGURE! by Linda Thistle

Metz company changes name, will now be known as Metz Culinary Management

Jeffrey Metz, president and CEO of Metz & Associates, Ltd., a family-owned dining and environmental management company, announced rebranding and renaming of the company at the recent Metz managers' conference held March 7 at Penn State/Hazleton Campus. "After 17 years of operating under the name of Metz & Associates, Ltd., we felt it was time for a change to better depict our way of defining the industry, as well as our future progress," Metz said. "This carefully thought-out branding process utilized internal and external perspectives, competitive analysis and brainstorming within the company and with outside consultants." "The Metz name was already recognized by our current customer base and new client prospects," Metz said. "Our name change reflects food service and hospitality." Thus, the new name of Metz Culinary Management was born. The Metz Culinary Management logo illustrates a chef-driven approach to food service. The branding was introduced to the entire Metz management team at the annual Metz Business Leadership Conference, using the Metz Served Here theme. Metz Culinary Management, a food service company in the Northeastern United States, provides dining and environmental management to clients such as hospitals, nursing homes, school districts, colleges, universities and corporate offices.
