

Original 'Supreme' comes here

Mary Wilson, one of the original founding members of the Supremes, is headlining the annual Misericordia University Under the Stars Summer Arts Festival at 8 p.m. on Saturday, July 23, and the accompanying gown exhibit, "The Mary Wilson Supremes' Collection," in the Pauly Friedman Art Gallery.

Ms. Wilson is best known as a founding member of the world's most famous female trio. With Diana Ross, Florence Ballard and Ms. Wilson, the Supremes recorded 12 No. 1 hits from 1964 to 1969, including "Baby Love," "Stop in the Name of Love," and "Back in My Arms Again." The Supremes is also the only group to record five consecutive No. 1 hits.

Festival tables that seat six are $270, amphitheater tickets are $30 and lawn seats are $20.

The Pauly Friedman Art Gallery is hosting the "Mary Wilson Supremes' Collection" in the art gallery on campus from July 23 to Oct. 17.

An opening reception for the exhibition of gowns and additional items is set for 5 to 8 p.m. on Friday, July 22 and features Ms. Wilson speaking and answering questions about the trio's musical legacy at 8 p.m. in Lemmond Theater in Walsh Hall. The exhibit features more than 50 distinctive gowns the Motown hitmakers wore during their climb to the top and rare memorabilia that spans their colorful career. The collection was last displayed in Royal Albert Hall in London, England.

Limited tickets are available for the opening reception. Tickets are $40 per person.

Fans can also indulge in the "Supreme Experience" for $360, which includes the opening reception for six, plus festival-table seating for six at the Starlight Concert.

Tickets can be ordered by calling 674-6719. The exhibit is open free to the public beginning July 23.

Ms. Wilson is more than a successful singer-songwriter. She is an author, cultural ambassador and humanitarian. Her "Dare to Dream" lecture, which she delivers to young people, emphasizes the need for personal perseverance to achieve their goals despite obstacles and adversities in their lives.

She has also been recognized as a humanitarian and continues to devote her time and talent to assisting a diverse group of non-profit organizations, including the Susan G. Komen Breast Cancer Foundation, the American Cancer Society and St. Jude's Children Research Hospital.

Ms. Wilson's 31-show world tour in 2011 is taking her to Ohio, Russia, the Ukraine, the United Kingdom and to Misericordia University.
