Hockey champs cited

Craig Skudalski, of Kingston Twp., Hunter Obeid, of Wilkes-Barre, and Bobby Polachek, of Kingston, recently became 16U AA Tier II National Ice Hockey Champions.

The boys play for the Mid-State Mustangs in Altoona. The team first won the MID-AM District / Pa. State Championship played in March in Pittsburgh, then advanced to the national tournament in Reston, Virginia where the Mustangs went 6-0.

The team knocked off the Alaska Wolves in the quarterfinals, the Metro Maple Leafs (MD) in the semi-finals and the Florida Jr. Panthers in the championship game.

During the regular ice hockey season, all three boys are members of the Wyoming Seminary varsity ice hockey team.
