Lake-Lehman is first at Regional History Day for 12th straight year

For the 12th consecutive year, Lake-Lehman High School won first place as the Senior Division Outstanding School at the 2011 Regional History Day Competition. This award is given to the school with the greatest number of award-winning projects in grades 9-12.

Twenty-six students and their projects (14 in total) qualified to represent Lake-Lehman High School at the Regional Contest held on March 19. A record number of 10 projects from Lake-Lehman captured either a first, second or third-place award at the regional contest. Lake-Lehman earned three first-place awards, five second-place awards and two third-place awards.

A record group of 21 students advanced to the state competition held at Millersville University where sophomore A.J. Reyes, who had won a first place at regional competition, grabbed a fourth-place state award for his Individual Documentary project, entitled "Old Enough to Fight, but Not to Vote?"
