

Catherine Morris, of Sweet Valley, plays for a fish at the Sweet Valley Fair.

Alexys Moore, of Shickshinny, looks through a bucket of beads.

Fun time in Sweet Valley

The Sweet Valley Volunteer Fire Company Memorial Weekend Fair offered free entertainment, a fireworks display, a parade and Fireman's Olympics. There were potato pancakes, pierogies, funnel cakes, fresh cut French fries, pizza, barbecues, soup, hot sausage and cheese steak sandwiches, hamburgers, hot dogs, ice cream and more. Rides entertained young children and a "White Elephant" sale was held in the fire hall.

Sisters Michaela Weber, Gabrielle Imbeault and Haidyn Weber, of Hunlock Creek, have fun earning goldfish at the Sweet Valley Fair.

Fair will honor military, EMS

The 49th Annual Luzerne County Fair will pay tribute to all military and EMS personnel and will display photos at the fair scheduled for September 7-11.

Anyone knowing people serving in the military or anyone involved with police, fire, ambulance and EMA is asked to send their pictures to display at the fair. Unfortunately, photos cannot be returned.

Photos should be 5x7 or 8x10 and may be mailed to Luzerne County Fair, P.O. Box 393, Dallas, Pa. 18612. Attention: Brenda Pugh.

Please include the name of the person in the photo, their branch service or department to which they belonged, their rank and the war, if any, in which they served.

Pear Tree Lane closed until September

Pear Tree Lane has been closed as an entrance onto the Dallas School District campus, effective June 6. Heavy construction in relationship to the new road going up to the new high school necessitated this closure.

It is anticipated that Pear Tree Lane will be closed until the opening of school in September.
