Dodgeball tourney set for July 17

The Fourth Annual Zachary Shoemaker Dodgeball Tournament will be held at noon on Sunday, July 17 at the National Guard Armory, Main Street, Nanticoke.

Proceeds will benefit the Zachary Bryden Shoemaker Foundation.

The event will be a double-elimination style tournament. Refreshments, food, raffle items and face painting will be available. Team registration is underway. Teams consist of eight people with a cost of $10 per person.

This year, players are encouraged to "rock the hawk" and wear Mohawks in Zachary's honor.

When Zack and his mother were involved in an automobile accident in 2008 that left him mentally and physically damaged, Zack had a Mohawk of his own. He used to walk around saying, "Rock 'n roll dude!"

In light of that memory, event coordinator Stef Sikora is encouraging dodgeball players to come wearing Mohawks or fauxhawks. In addition, Pure Lavi Salon will be on-site to cut and style Mohawks and fauxhawks.

Since its inception in 2008, the dodgeball tourney event has raised more than $6,300 for the Zachary Bryden Shoemaker Foundation. Last year, a total of 32 teams participated and nearly 30 businesses supported the event. This year, an even larger turnout is expected.

The event is open to the public and admission is free. Music will be provided by DJ Scott Stevens.

For more information, contact Stef Sikora at 574-5945.
