

Sports

Jarrett Cummings, left, tries taking the ball away from Blake Chopyak.

Brody Strickland, of Dallas, looks surprised as he catches a pass.

Facing off against a bigger guy like camp coach Domenic Oliveri is not an easy job for Jacob Stritzinger, of Dallas.

Future MOUNTS

The future of Dallas High School football could be found at the annual Dallas Football Mini Camp held recently at Mountaineer Stadium. The camp emphasized fundamentals and was conducted by Dallas High School football coach Ted Jackson, current and former Mountaineers players.

Although he wants to, 4-year-old Clark Van Orden is told he's too young to play with the bigger boys.

Job Stepanski, right, of Hunlock Creek, squares off against Daniel Kutz at a football camp organized by a Lake-Lehman student as his senior completion project.

Calvin Bardo, of Lehman, practices conditioning steps during a football camp at Lake-Lehman High School.

Future KNIGHTS

Future Lake-Lehman Black Knights learned the fundamentals of the game of football recently during the Black Knights Pride Mini Football Camp. The camp was conducted as the senior completion project of Lake-Lehman football player Ryan Hoyt. Other staff members included Jared Novitski and Job Stepanski, Lake-Lehman football players; and Gerald Gilsky, head football coach at Lake-Lehman.