Event celebrates 180th year of Mercy Sisters

Those whose lives have been touched by a Sister of Mercy will have the chance to say thank you at a unique event on Saturday, Sept. 10 that will celebrate both the 180th anniversary of the founding of the Sisters of Mercy and a milestone in one of the order's most unique ministries, the 10th anniversary of the university's Women with Children (WWC) Program.

All proceeds from the "Sisters Helping Sisters, Families Helping Families" event will benefit the establishment of The Sisters of Mercy Scholarship for Women with Children at Miser-icordia University.

The celebration at Mohegan Sun at Pocono Downs, Plains Township, will include a special announcement of the naming of the WWC program as the Ruth Mathews Bourger Women with Children Program.

Tickets to the gala are $125 and are available by calling 674-6719.

Those who would like to honor a Sister of Mercy who has impacted their life or a mother in the Women with Children Program may sponsor their attendance at the gala with a gift of $125

Scout Troop 146 enjoys Father's Day canoe trip

Boy Scout Troop 146 of the Jackson Township Volunteer Fire Department recently celebrated Father's Day 2011 with its Second Annual Father's Day Canoe Trip down the Susquehanna River.

Sixteen boys, their dads and two little sisters participated in the morning-long, nine-mile adventure which included canoeing, kayaking, fishing, swimming and a lunch break on a river island. Scouts used their Bird Study merit badge experience to spot several unique Pennsylvania birds on the trip, including loons, the Great Blue Heron and two Bald Eagles in flight.

David Parmelee, Troop 146 Assistant Scoutmaster and Canoeing Merit Badge instructor, conducted all pre-event preparations and scout education sessions.
