

Hundreds of people came out for the Back Mountain Recreation Board Outdoor Movie Night.

The Back Mountain Recreation Fields looked more like a drive-in movie than athletic fields during Outdoor Movie Night.

BMT Rec Fields sight of free outdoor movies

The Back Mountain Recreation Fields looked more like a drive-in movie theater than athletic fields recently when the Back Mountain Recreation organization sponsored free movies. While patrons set up blankets and lawn chairs, Boy Scouts, members of the Bobcats football and Back Mountain Soccer organizations sold concessions as a fundraiser. The Hillside Farms ice cream truck also paid a visit.

Dancers perform at Knoebel's

The Joan Harris Dancers will appear in two productions at Knoebel's Amusement Park this week.

Nearly 100 dancers from the Back Mountain communities will pool their talents with 200 other dancers from across the region to produce a fun-filled, fast-paced dance review at 4 and 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 17 on the main stage at the park.

Titled "A Summer to Remember," the show marks the end of a special summer intensive program at the center and will feature a wide variety of song and dance routines designed as one final salute to the summertime.

Joan Harris first staged a summer picnic and showcase at an amusement park in 1961 and it has been a favorite tradition for her students ever since. This is the 23rd consecutive year the studio will perform at the park in Elysburg.

Seniors should use vouchers

The Area Agency on Aging of Luzerne/Wyoming Counties reminds recipients of the 2011 Senior Farmers Market Nutrition Program vouchers that they have until November 30, 2011 to redeem them.

These vouchers can only be used to purchase locally-grown fresh fruits and vegetables at the Farmers Market stands that are participants of the Dept. of Agriculture's SFMNP. Baked goods, meat, jam, honey, apple cider or eggs are not allowable for purchase with these vouchers.
