

Wyoming Seminary is set to begin its 168th year of classes

Upper School convocation service is Aug. 29; Lower School begins Aug. 30.

Wyoming Seminary, with campuses in Kingston and Forty Fort, will begin its 168th year of classes at the end of August.

The Upper School in Kingston will register boarding and day students on Saturday and Sunday, Aug. 27 and 28 for grades nine through 12 and post-graduate. New students will participate in orientation activities on Saturday and Sunday and freshmen will attend a special freshman retreat on Sunday.

A special opening-of-school convocation service will be held on Monday, Aug. 29 at the Upper School.

Sem government president Renata O'Donnell '12, of Wilkes-Barre, will offer words of welcome and will ring the historic Cokesbury Bell 16 times, one for each decade of Wyoming Seminary's existence, to usher in the new academic year.

Rachel Bartron, a member of the science faculty, will address the student body.

The Lower School, located in Forty Fort, will open for its first day of classes on Tuesday, Aug. 30 with a convocation for students in fifth through eighth grades.

Orientation for new Lower School students in grades 1-8 will be held from 10 a.m. to noon on Monday, Aug. 29 and an Open House for new and returning pre-school, pre-kindergarten and kindergarten students and their parents will be held at the same time.

Dr. Claire Smith Hornung, Dean of Primary, announced that the opening convocation for primary grades will be held on Wednesday, Aug. 31.

A Parents Back to School Night will be held at 6 p.m. on Sunday, Aug. 26. A similar Back to School

Night for parents of children in first and second grades will be held at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Aug. 31 at 7:00 p.m. and for third and fourth grades at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 1.

Will Davis, Interim Dean of Middle School, encourages parents of middle-school students to attend their orientation session at 7 p.m. on Tuesday, Sept. 6.
