MU schedules open house programs

Misericordia University is offering open house programs on the Back Mountain campus to give students and their parents an opportunity to spend a day touring the 124-acre campus and to meet with students, faculty, coaches and admissions and financial aid counselors.

The open houses will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturdays, Sept. 17 and Oct. 29. Registration will begin all three days at 9 a.m. in the Anderson Sports and Health Center at the north gate of campus. The open house schedule includes registration, refreshments, campus tours, a faculty session and lunch and meetings with representatives of student services, athletics and financial aid.

For more information, contact the Misericordia University Admissions Office at 675-4449.

Festival will benefit local ski club

Matt DeAngelis and Dave Margary will conduct the first-ever Lehman Autumn Festival from 1 to 6 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 15 at the Lake-Lehman High School grounds to benefit a local ski club.

Admission and parking are free. There will be live entertainment, food, vendors, yard sale marketers, and more.

Anyone interested in the yard sale, vendor space or sponsorship may contact 262-6275.

9/11 program set

"A Decade Later: Americans United in Song" will be presented by the Endless Mountains Barbershop Chorus and other community groups at 6 p.m. today, Sept. 11 on the Wyoming County Courthouse lawn.

The program will feature patriotic songs such as "America the Beautiful" and "God Bless America." Community audience members will also be asked to sing along on such favorites as "This Land Is Your Land" and "My Country 'tis of Thee."

The Dennis Strong American Legion Post 457 will present the colors as the chorus sings "The National Anthem" and firefighters from Triton Hose Company will be honored as the "Pledge of Allegiance" is recited.

The Wyoming County Players will also present a skit commemorating the drama which unfolded 10 years ago.

Carson honored at PSU

The Penn State Engineering Alumni Society (PSEAS) recently presented Dr. Jon Carson, Associate Professor of Engineering at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, with the 2011 Outstanding Teacher Award.

According to the PSEAS website, the PSEAS Outstanding Teacher Award "recognizes and rewards outstanding engineering educators for excellence in teaching and for contributions to the art of teaching. These teaching awards are established to confer honor on individuals whose inspiration and contributions to learning are truly memorable."

Carson, a 1972 Troy High School graduate, earned a bachelor's degree from Penn State in 1977 and a master's degree and Ph.D. from the University of Illinois in 1981 and 1985, respectively.

He currently resides in Dallas and has spent the past 20 years teaching engineering courses at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.
