Knights now 0-2

The Lake-Lehman offense went right down the field with the second-half kickoff, gaining sizeable chunks of yardage to cover 80 yards and score a touchdown. But even that wasn't enough to thwart Lackawanna Trail as the visitors handed the black Knights a 48-28 non-conference loss Saturday night.

Lehman failed to make any inroads on the deficit, falling to 0-2.

The Black Knights made the District 2 Class 2A playoffs last season and are now teetering on being knocked out of the district picture early.

Lehman coach Jerry Gilsky was somewhat satisfied with his offense. The Black Knights had nearly 300 yards with Nick Shelley leading the ball carriers with 78 yards on 19 carries. Quarterback Jared Novitski was 7-of-14 for 103 more, including two long gainers to sophomore tight end Kyle Romanofsky.

Mounts win big

Running back Jim Roccogranti ran for a career-high 262 points on a mere 11 carries and quarterback Ryan Zapoticky passed for 170 more, including two touchdowns, as Dallas amassed 520 yards of offense enroute to a 48-20 non-conference trouncing of Scranton Prep Saturday afternoon.

And, all of that came without two keys offensive skill players - Paul Brace and Felix Dolman who were both injured in the opener versus Coughlin.

The Mountaineers needed just one offensive play to push their lead to 41-13 in the third quarter.

Zapoticky hit receiver Jason Simonovich down the right sideline and, after breaking a tackle, scored on an 82-yard touchdown.

to Shane Dunn at 8:10 of the first quarter.

Roccogranti, however, was the story of the initial 24 minutes. The senior back had touchdown runs of 42, 40 and 89 yards to allow the Mountaineers to take a 27-6 lead. He had just one carry in the second half but it was a big one - a 53-yard run that set up Dallas' seventh touchdown of the game.
