

Second graders listen to Omega-Man talk about bullying at Ross Elementary School.

Second-grader Anthony Hurrysh tangles with Omega-Man during an illustrative talk about bullying at Ross Elementary School.

Omega Man visits Ross Elementary School

Students at Ross Elementary School in Sweet Valley had a special visit from the national character-building and anti-bullying program Omega-Man & Friends. The comic book superhero-based program features information about how students can make good decisions in life and covers topics such as peer pressure, bullying, drug prevention, making healthy choices, academic excellence and violence prevention.

Harvest Festival today on Main Street

The Ninth Annual Dallas Harvest Festival takes place from 1 to 6 p.m. today, Sept. 18, rain or shine, on Main Street. The event showcases the Back Mountain region's rich agricultural heritage and features a large farmers market, Kids Corner, fire truck rides, a petting zoo and a wide variety of community food vendors. This year's entertainment will be scheduled on two stages.
