Mother Nature cooperates for Festival's success

There were plenty of winners at this year's Dallas Harvest Festival held Sunday, Sept. 18 on Main Street in Dallas.

The Good Gourd Contest, which was changed this year from a baking contest to a pumpkin decorating competition, had several winners place in the event.

In the 4-7 age category, Zakary Waslick took first place.

In the 8-10 age group, Caleb Waslick earned the top placing.

Four winners took home ribbons in the 11-15 age group. They are Madison Ziemba, first place; Michael Sabolka, second place; Bethany Fiorello, third place; and Gianna Musto, honorable mention.

The age 16 and older group also had four winners. They are: Rebecca Janrich, first place; Derek Peters, second place; Johnny Burrows, third place; and Sherrie Waslick, honorable mention.

Businesses blossomed into winners during the event. The Back Mountain Business Association-sponsored Flower Box Contest winners were as follows: Earth and Wears, first place; Leggio's, second place; and Beccania's, third place.

C.K.'s Summer Treats won this year's Kiss the Pig Contest, sponsored by Frontier Communications. Owner Cody Kytte celebrated winning the best ice cream in the Back Mountain by puckering up to give the festival's new pot belly pig a kiss on the snout.

The Best of Open Mic Contest had three finishers compete for stage time at the festival. Hannah

Kasko, of Jackson Township, placed first; Adam O'Brien, of Hunlock Creek, and Noah Sunday-Lefkowitz, of Shavertown, placed second; and Amanda Foote, of Shavertown, and Alyssa Horvath, of Dallas, placed third.
