

YOUTH FOOTBALL RESULTS

Harrison scores two for Mounts

A TEAM

Dallas 26
Exeter 0

The Dallas Junior Mounts A Team improved its record to 4-1 last Sunday with a convincing 26-0 victory over the WWWE Panthers.

Matthew Smith and Jimmy Barlow both scored touchdowns and Matt Harrison added another for the Junior Mounts' offense behind some great blocking from Charles Harry, Colin Shedletsky, Colin Ryniec and Josh Hunter.

Harrison added an interception return for touchdown and Xavier Barber cashed in with a 2-point conversion.

Cameron Shaner led a strong defensive effort that held the Panthers in check all game.

Stephen Koval, Aidan Martinez, Christian Goldsmith, Jarrod Hislop and Jerry Ogurkis controlled the line of scrimmage and were constantly making tackles in the back field.

Barlow and Aidan Martinez will lead the Junior Mounts against the also undefeated Plymouth Shawnee Indians today.

B TEAM

Dallas 14
WWWE 6

The Dallas Junior Mounts B Team improved to 4-1 on the season with a 14-6 victory over the WWWE Panthers.

Jerry Ogurkis ran for one touchdown and threw for another to David Chopyak who also caught a pass for the 2-point conversion. Led by Ethan Mooney, Sean Cuba and Daniel Hodle, the offense played a solid ball controlling game.

The defense used pressure at the line of scrimmage to force the Panthers into three turnovers, including an interception by both Stephen Newell and Jay Bittner. Ethan Scioscia and Tom Marsola provided plenty of coverage against the Panther aerial attack.

C TEAM

Kingston Twp. 22
Swoyersville 0

The Kingston Township Raiders C-team defeated the Swoyersville Sailors, 22-0.

KT's defense held strong behind great performances by Gabriel Miller, Cole Vonderheid and Scott McLaughlin.

The KT offense was able to score quickly. Michael Stabuck, Matt Maransky and Ethan Capitano had touchdowns while Dylan Schuster and Luke DelGaudio added 2-point conversions.

Key blocks by Josh Balara and David Rinehimer among others made a few of the scores possible.

Dallas 12

Exeter 6

The Dallas Junior Mounts C team won the battle of the unbeaten last Sunday with a 12-6 victory over the Exeter Panthers.

The Junior Mounts, wearing pink socks in honor of Breast Cancer Awareness Month, now stand alone atop the standings as the only undefeated team.

The Dallas defense, led by Taylor Bolesta, Jack Gallis, Devin Richards and Jack Farrell, stopped Exeter's opening drive at the 2-yard line. Todd Phillips then converted a fourth and nine from Dallas' own 3-yard line with some great blocking by Colin Ziess, Mike Ropetski and Freddie Lombardo.

Phillips later scored to end that drive to give Dallas a 6-0 lead. Exeter tied the game at 6-6 before the half.

Gallis and Xander Shaner had some strong runs up the middle against Exeter before Phillips broke his second TD run of the game.

The Dallas D sealed the game as Brennen Eggleston, Johnny Cantando and Hunter Love made another defensive stand at the 5-yard line to end Exeter's bid to tie the game.

D TEAM

Dallas 42
Exeter 20

The Dallas Junior Mounts D team remained undefeated, beating the defending Super Bowl champion Exeter Panthers, 42-20.

Dallas Junior Mounts B team receiver David Chopyak fights a WWWE defender for the ball.

The Dallas offense was clicking on all cylinders in tallying its highest point total of the year.

The Junior Mounts scored on every offensive possession with all four backs, Ayden Berndt, Mitchell Burgess, Lucas Shultz and Jared Adamski, scoring at least one touchdown.

The offensive line of Joe "Missle" Peters, Tal Richards, Mason Calvey, Parker Bolesta, Junior Atherholt and tight ends Sawyer Cristman and Nick Fine opened giant holes in the Panthers' defense, allowing the Dallas backs to gain huge chunks of yardage on every play.

Center Parker Bolesta did his usual outstanding job, snapping the ball in Dallas' "shotgun wildcat" offense.

The Junior Mounts' defense utilized a "bend don't break" approach to the Exeter offense, coming up with big plays when needed. One of those big plays was a fumble recovery by Pete Federici with the score tied at 14-14.

The defensive line, consisting of Federici, Brady Eggleston, Colby Kleintob, Nick Spencer and Ryan Cuba, rose to the occasion, making key tackles as the Panthers ran the majority of their plays inside the tackles.

The outside linebackers Mark Karcutskie, Gavin Adamski and defensive backs Matt Esposito, Mitchell Burgess, Lucas Shultz, Ayden Berndt and Jared Adamski kept the rest of the Exeter offense in check while posting their fifth win on the year.

The Junior Mounts travel to Plymouth this week to take on the Indians.

Aiden Berndt (No. 60) of the Dallas Junior Mounts D team gives Exeter's Zachary Sheridan a stiff arm in his fight for yards.

'Pink Day' held

The home field of the Dallas Junior Mounts was decked out in pink last Sunday as the organization promoted breast cancer awareness during its game against the Wyoming /West Wyoming/ Exeter Panthers. Even the spitting rain all day did not dampen the spirits of the players and cheerleaders.

The boys wore pink socks, pink mouthpieces and pink tape everywhere. The girls wore pink tees, pink hairbows and pink ribbons. Pink ribbons were found on the coaches and the parents.

"Fight to Save the Girls" banners were held for the boys to run through as they entered the field ready for action.

Those battling breast cancer were there to cheer on their team, wearing their "Fight like a Girl" sweatshirts.

TOP PHOTO: Members of the Dallas Junior Mounts B team cheerleading squad hold a pink ribbon banner for the football players to run through upon entering the field.

RIGHT PHOTO: Dallas Junior Mounts C team cheer captains Morgan Williams, left, and Emma Brown wear their "Fight Like a Girl" bracelets.