PSU/WB sponsors teachers' workshop

Penn State Wilkes-Barre will hold a free informational teachers' workshop and luncheon to prepare for History Day 2012 regional competition from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 19 in the Nesbitt Academic Commons & Library.

The program will address contest requirement updates, research projects incorporating sources with proper documentation and the use of digital and web resources and will include breakfast and lunch.

For more information, contact Janis Winter, History Day Co-Coordinator, at 675-9232 or jrw4@psu.edu.

MU students sponsor event

The Misericordia University Dead Alchemist Society is planning to present an expanded spectacle for the student organization's 20th annual "Things That Go Boom in the Night!" at 7 p.m. on Wednesday, Oct. 26 in the Wells Fargo Amphitheater on campus. The event is open free to the public.

For more information call Dr. Anna Fedor, Ph.D., assistant professor of chemistry, at 674-6769.

MU schedules open house program

Misericordia University is offering an open house program to give students and their parents an opportunity to spend a day touring the 124-acre campus and to meet with students, faculty, coaches and admissions and financial aid counselors.

The open house will be held from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 29. Registration will begin at 9 a.m. in the Anderson Sports and Health Center at the north gate of campus.

The open house schedule includes registration, refreshments, campus tours, a faculty session and lunch, and meetings with representatives of student services, athletics and financial aid.

For more information, contact the Misericordia University Admissions Office at 675-4449.

Safe trick or treating at MU

Misericordia University will offer a safe trick-or-treat event for children from 3 to 5 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 30 on the front lawn of McHale Hall near the North Gate of the upper campus.

Area residents are invited to bring their children on campus and visit the university's residence halls. The event is sponsored by the Department of Residence Life.

For more information, contact Annmarie Narcum in the Residence Life Office at 674-6178.

Wyoming Seminary sets Open House

Students in grades 8-12 and their parents are invited to an Open House from 1 to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Nov. 5 at Wyoming Seminary Upper School, Sprague Avenue, Kingston.

For more information, call the Admission Office at 270-2160.

Back Mountain dancers will perform in Harris Centre's Halloween presentation

Hundreds of dancers from the Back Mountain communities will be part of "The Joan Harris Centre's 30th Annual Halloween Spooktacular" at 1 and 5 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 22 and at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 23 at the E. L. Meyers High School Auditorium in Wilkes-Barre.

"The Magic Forest," directed by Jennifer Harris, is a song and dance play based on the Brothers Grimm's fairy tale, Hansel and Gretel. A more haunting tale being presented later in the production is "Children of the Sun," a post-apocalyptic tale written and directed by Elisabeth Harris and featuring the concept rock music of Billy Thorpe.

"The Joan Harris Centre's 30th Annual Halloween Spooktacular" is a 90-minute long performance, which will incorporate a wide variety of ballet, tap, jazz and hip hop dances all set in a musical motif for the holiday.

Tickets are $10 in advance and children under 5 years of age are admitted free.

For more information, call 287-7977.
