

Dallas field hockey senior Hilary Crossley, right, stands with her mom, Betty, as they listen to short biographies of senior players during Senior Day festivities.

Dallas field hockey seniors pose with their parents on Senior Day after their game against Meyers at Klassner Field in Kingston. From left, first row, Kirby Szalkowski, Sarah Stewart, Hilary Crossley, Sabrina Zurek, Leah Zumchak, Jessica Missal and Dana Jolley. Second row, Ralph and Sandy Szalkowski, Diane Stewart, Betty Crossley, Sandy Zurek, Greg and Nancy Zumchak, Maureen and Gary Missal and Robert and Mary Ellen Jolley.

Dallas field hockey player Evonna Ackourey looks to shoot against Meyers Monday afternoon in Kingston.

DHS field hockey seniors honored

Evonna Ackourey led the way with two goals and an assist as the Dallas girls field hockey team grabbed a 6-2 victory over Meyers Monday at Klassner Field in Kingston on Senior Day for the Mountaineers. Kat Comitz chipped in two goals for Dallas.

SLACKTISH TO COMPETE AT HORSE CONTEST

National Reining Horse Association member Madison Slacktish, of Dallas, has earned the right to compete in the 2011 NRHA Adequan North American Affiliate Championships scheduled to take place during the NRHA Futurity in Oklahoma City, Okla. from November 24 through December 3. Slacktish will compete against more than 500 reiners from across North America aboard Quarter Horse, Party O Lena in the Youth 13 & Under North American Affiliate Championship class.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Girls basketball camp scheduled

The annual Lake-Lehman Girls Basketball Camp will be held from 6 to 8 p.m. October 24-27 at the high school gymnasium.

Cost is $40 per player or $30 per player if more than one person from the same family attends.

Players will be divided into three groups – third and fourth grades, fifth and sixth grade and seventh and eighth grade.

Those interested in attending are asked to call Barry Horvath at 477-2789.

Blast fastpitch teams seek new players

The U12 and U14 Endless Mountains Blast fastpitch teams are still looking for a few qualified players to fill their 2012 rosters.

Those interested in U12 should contact John Keefe at 885-5808. Interested U14 players should contact Bill Kern at 498-5991.

Basketball clinic set for Rock Rec Center

The Rock Rec Center, 340 Carverton Rd., Trucksville will hold its annual Fall Basketball Clinic through October 26.

The clinic, open to girls and boys K through sixth grade, will provide pre-season preparation and conditioning, equal playing time for each participant, drills, games and skill development for every child regardless of experience.

For more information, contact the Rock Rec at 696-2769 or TheRockRecCenter@bmha.org.

YOUTH FOOTBALL RESULTS

KT Raiders B team still undefeated

B TEAM

Kingston Township 30
Swoyersville 0

The Kingston Township Raiders B team remained unbeaten by defeating the Swoyersville Sailors, 30-0.

The Raiders' offense continued its balanced scoring behind the running of Devin Robbins, Robby Dwyer, Mason Gattuso and Tyler Williams who all contributed to the team scoring.

The offensive line, anchored by Mark Mahalick and Connor Stevens, provided line support needed for the offense.

The Raiders' defense continued its stellar play with key stops made consistently by Christian Motley, David Schuster and Max Dzugan as well as defensive ends Michael Anderson and Dylan Jockel stopping the Sailors' running game.

The defensive line was controlled throughout the game with the line play of Andrew Grabowski, Josh Hodredge, Russell McRae, Tyler Palmer and Josh Gerstein.

Both Dzugan and Dwyer added interceptions to stop the Sailors' offensive drives.

The Raiders will meet cross-town rivals the Dallas Junior Mounts today at the Dana Street Elementary School Field in Forty Fort.

C TEAM

Dallas 38
Kingston Township 20

The Dallas Junior Mounts C team improved to 7-0 on Sunday with a 38-20 victory over rival Kingston Township Raiders.

The Mounts' offensive line of Colin Ziess, Jack Zeyher and Freddie Lombardo opened holes up all day long. Todd Phillips, Xander Shaner and Johnny Cantando all scored rushing touchdowns for the Junior Mounts. The Dallas defense capitalized on interceptions by Phillips and Jacob Esposito in the first half, turning both turnovers into touchdowns.

The Raiders made a second half push with touchdowns by Michael Starbuck and Dylan Shuster before Mike Ropetski, JR Redmond and Hunter Love made some late defensive stands for the Junior Mounts.

KT's opening drive stalled after a few great plays, including a Michael Starbuck pass to Matt Maransky to seal a first down.

The Raiders' defense gave up some early scores; however, the KT offense got rolling towards the end of the first half. Starbuck scored on a long run down the sideline and Maransky added the 2-point conversion. Blocks by Dylan Schuster, Troy Turinski, Jack Luke, David Rinehimmer and Jacob Koretz help make plays like that happen.

Later in the second half, Schuster scored on a long run up the middle and Starbuck put points up again.

Many of the Raiders' players, including Luke DelGaudio, Cole Vonderhied, Gabriel Miller, Ethan Capitano and Scott McLaughlin, stepped up to make some big plays.

The victory secured Dallas a number one seed in the playoffs. It takes on the Kingston Huskies today before heading into the playoffs.

D TEAM

Dallas 42
Kingston Township 14

The Dallas Junior Mounts D Team ran its unbeaten streak to 7-0 with a 42-14 victory over the Kingston Township Raiders.

Although the Raiders' offense was able to move the ball against Dallas, the defense forced and recovered four fumbles which were the difference in the outcome.

Jared Adamski (No. 81) of the Dallas Junior Mounts wraps the legs of Kingston Township Raider Jake DelGaudio (No. 20) and takes him down in C team action.

Joe "Missile" Peters, making his first start of the year on defense, recovered two fumbles while Mitch Burgess and Colby Kleintob each had a fumble recovery.

The defensive line of Peters, Kleintob, Brady Eggleston, Lucas Shultz and Ryan Cuba spent the game in the Raiders' backfield, knocking the ball loose and making tackles for a loss.

Linebackers Mark Karcutskie, Gavin Adamski and defensive backs Nick Spencer, Mitch Burgess, Ayden Berndt, Jared Adamski and Matt Esposito executed the Junior Mounts' zone defense concept, keeping the Raiders bottled up for most of the contest.

The Dallas offense was able to capitalize on the Kingston Township turnovers, matching a season-high total of 42 points.

Jared Adamski led the offense with four touchdowns and Adamski was unstoppable, refusing to go down and breaking at least two tackles on every touchdown run. Ayden Berndt and Lucas Shultz scored one touchdown a piece to complete the scoring. Mitch Burgess added a long 50-yard run to set up one of the Junior Mounts TDs.

The offensive line of Mason Calvey, Junior Atherholt, Parker Bolesta, Tal Richards, Pete Federici, Nick Fine and Sawyer Cristman once again dominated the line of scrimmage, allowing the Dallas runningbacks lots of running room.