

HAND DONATES PAINTING TO LCCC

Sue Hand, a nationally-recognized artist, recently donated the painting, "Pemaquid Point Light House" to Luzerne County Community College's 22nd Annual Alumni Association Fall Craft Festival Raffle. Chances are three for $5 and are available at the LCCC Alumni Office. Proceeds will benefit both LCCC student programs and the college's community outreach fund. The artwork is on display on the alumni website at www.luzerne.edu/alumni. The drawing for the painting will be held on Monday, Nov. 14. From left, are Bonnie Brennan Lauer '87, Shavertown, director, alumni relations, LCCC; Susan Gilroy King '10, Ashley, member, LCCC Alumni Association; Ann Marie Schreäeder '07, Glen Lyon, treasurer, LCCC Alumni Association; Sue Hand, Dallas, artist; Thomas P. Leary, Kingston, president, LCCC; and Sandra Nicholas, Kingston, executive director, LCCC Foundation, Inc.

FALL FUN

A fall festival on the grounds of Lake-Lehman High School benefitted a local ski club. The festival was the senior completion project of Lake-Lehman students Matt DeAngelis and Dave Margary.

BMPA officers will collect coats, gloves

The Back Mountain Police Association (BMPA) will hold its annual "Warm Coats for Kids" coat drive this weekend today, Oct. 23 and again on November 12 and 13 in the Thomas' Family Market parking lot in Shavertown. Law enforcement officers (BMPA members) will accept donated new or gently-used coats for children. New or gently-used hats and gloves will also be accepted. Marked collection boxes will also be placed in businesses and community centers throughout the Back Mountain. For further information, contact Ross Piazza, vice-president, at 760-9342.
