Dallas Foundation holds golf event

A golf tournament to benefit the newly-formed Dallas Foundation for Excellence in Education was held on October 14 at Mill Race Golf Course in Benton. The goal of the foundation is to help fund anything the district might need but can't squeeze into a cash-strapped budget, such as facilities improvements, academic pursuits and extracurricular activities equipment.

YOUTH FOOTBALL RESULTS

Adamski's score starts Mounts' win

D TEAM

Dallas 22
Kingston 14

The Dallas Junior Mounts D team concluded its regular season at 8-0 and secured the Number 1 seed in the playoffs with a hard-fought 22-14 victory over the Kingston Huskies.

For the fifth time this season, Jared Adamski scored a touchdown on the first play of the game, running untouched into the endzone. With the 2-point conversion being unsuccessful, the Junior Mounts took a 6-0 lead.

The Huskies responded, going on a scoring drive of their own and, after an unsuccessful 2-point conversion, the score was tied at 6-6.

Both teams went back and forth for the rest of the first half, trading possessions without scoring.

Dallas got the ball with 1:42 left in the half and ran its 2-minute offense to perfection with Lucas Shultz scoring a TD on the last play of the half. Ayden Berndt blasted up the middle for the 2-point conversion and put Dallas up, 14-6.

The Dallas defense really stiffened in the second half with both teams trading possessions until the start of the fourth quarter when the Junior Mounts went on a scoring drive, putting them up 22-6.

Kingston got the ball back with five minutes left in the game and methodically drove the ball down the field on Dallas' prevent defense, scored a TD and a 2-point conversion with 32 seconds remaining in the game.

Dallas took possession and ran out the clock with two kneel downs, preserving its eighth victory in as many tries.

The Dallas defense includes defensive lineman Brady Eggleston, Joe "Missle" Peters, Ryan Cuba, Nick Spencer and Colby Kleintob; linebackers Gavin Adamski, Mark Karcutskie; defensive backs Matt Esposito, Mitchell Burgess, Ayden Berndt and Jared Adamski.

The Dallas offense consists of linemen Mason Calvey, Junior Atherholt, Parker Bolesta, Tal Richards and Pete Federici; tight ends Sawyer Cristman and Nick Fine; backs Mitch Burgess, Lucas Shultz, Ayden Berndt and Jared Adamski, who all stepped up when their team needed points in the victory.

The Junior Mounts head into the playoffs today, facing the Ed/Lark Hurricanes, whom they defeated, 36-20, earlier in the year.

Dolly Woody, executive director of the Susan B. Komen Foundation receives a check from Nikki Sutliff, center, and Tori Frederick, two Lake-Lehman field hockey players whose senior project raised over $2,000 for the organization.

Thinking PINK

Tori Frederick and Nikki Sutliff supported the Susan G. Komen Foundation and brought awareness to breast cancer by coordinating Play Pink Day with their Lake-Lehman field hockey teammates. The Lady Black Knights hosted the field hockey team from Western Wayne High School on October 11 and wore pink shirts on the field. Later, Frederick and Sutliff presented a check for $2,000 to the Susan G. Komen Foundation.
