1:30 left before half time. Zeiss and Shaner sealed the left end and Phillips took the ball into the endzone to give Dallas a 24-6 halftime lead.

Cantando, Love and Farrell continued the defensive assault by the Junior Mounts into the second half. Then Shaner followed Zeyher, Lombardo and Hajkowski to pound the middle of the Wildcats' defense to seal the victory and secure another Super Bowl victory.

D TEAM

Dallas 28
Swoyersville 6

The Dallas Junior Mounts D-team capped off its perfect season at 10-0 with a convincing 28-6 win over previously-undefeated Swoyersville in the WVVYFCC championship game at Wyoming Valley West stadium.

Swoyersville won the toss, elected to receive and drove the ball down the field to score the first touchdown of the contest.

The 2-point conversion was no good and Swoyersville held an early 6-0 lead.

Dallas came right back and, for the eighth time this season, Jared Adamski scored a touchdown on the Junior Mounts' first offensive play. Using his blazing speed, Ayden Berndt zoomed around the left end on the 2-point conversion and the Junior Mounts took an 8-6 lead.

Swoyersville got the ball back but fumbled and Dallas defensive tackle Joe "Missle" Peters pounced on the ball.

Dallas drove down the field with Jared Adamski hitting paydirt, again aided by two long runs by Mitch Burgess and Ayden Berndt. Lucas Shultz's 2-point conversion try was no good and Dallas led, 14-6.

Swoyersville took possession and tried repeatedly to run to the outside, only to be turned back by cornerbacks Mitch Burgess and Matt Esposito.

After a Swoyersville punt, Dallas' Jared Adamski scored for the third time with devastating blocks provided by fullback Lucas Shultz and tight end Sawyer Cristman. The 2-point try was no good and Dallas led, 20-6, at the half.

Dallas received to start the second half and Adamski scored again on a long touchdown run, giving him four TDs on the day. Ayden Berndt bulled into the endzone on the 2-point try and Dallas took a 28-6 lead.

There would be no more scoring from Swoyersville as the Junior Mounts thwarted their outside running game and inflicted huge losses on their running backs with the inside pursuit of D-linemen Brady Eggleston, Colby Kleintob, Ryan Cuba, Nick Spencer, "Missle" Peters and linebackers Gavin Adamski and Mark Karcutskie.

Dallas O-linemen Mason Calvey, Pete Federici, Parker Boles-ta, Junior Atherholt and Tal Richards came off the ball, effectively giving the Dallas backs enough room to run keeping the chains moving.

There was no more scoring and with zeroes on the clock, Dallas had its second Super Bowl win in three years. This concluded the season for the Junior Mounts except for the 7-year-olds who will play in the "Charity Bowl" this weekend.

Arch-rival football players break bread before big game

Dallas Mountaineers and Lake-Lehman Black Knights gather for annual Old Shoe Breakfast at Huntsville Country Club prior to doing battle on the field.

Players from Dallas and Lake-Lehman High School football teams are arch-rivals on the field during the annual Old Shoe Game but, off the field, they can be the best of friends. That friendship was evidenced during the annual Old Shoe Breakfast at Huntsville Country Club where players, cheerleaders, coaches, administrators and friends of both teams gathered the day before the big game.
