Kyle Borland, left, has been awarded the Corey Ehret Award for showing courage. The award is presented to a member of the Dallas High School girls or boys cross country teams in honor of Corey Ehret, a senior member of the team who is battling cancer. With Borland are coach Matt Samuel, center, and Corey Ehret.

Borland is Corey Ehret Award winner

At the annual end-of-season banquet for the Dallas High School cross country teams, Kyle Borland was chosen as this year's recipient of the Corey Ehret Award.

This award is given to a member of the girls or boys team who showed courage in overcoming adversity throughout the season. The award is in honor of Corey Ehret, a senior member of the cross country team who has been courageously battling cancer.

Borland, a sophomore in his first season of varsity competition, stepped up to the challenge of helping his team win a district title while fighting illness at the end of the season. At the state meet, Kyle fell in the beginning of the race, got back up and fought his way back into the race to help his team to a 12th place finish.
