LEHMAN TOWNSHIP

Budget calls for no tax increase

By SUSAN DENNEY Dallas Post Correspondent

ed the 2012 budget and an- proved at the December nounced there would be no tax meeting. increase next year at Monday night's board of supervisors meeting. The total budget presented amounted cember meeting.

Supervisors approved two emergency supplies.

The supervisors also approved another resolution to the road for through traffic," he apply for a gaming grant in con-said. junction with Dallas Borough ly by the two municipalities.

The board also approved Sut- the problem. ton's request to appoint Borton-Lawson Engineering as al-residents. ternate engineer to the town-

Sutton explained that it would day and get more details. require the cooperation of several municipalities.

have to take care of the whole the municipal building.

The total budget presented amounted to $1,355,588. The budget is available for review Treasurer Al Cragle present- by the public and will be ap-

$1,355,588. The budget is avail-road," said Sutton, explaining able for review by the public that, in other municipalities, and will be approved at the De- the road joined into county

Vice Chairman Ray Iwanowresolutions related to game ski reported that the Back grants. One would allow the Mountain Community Partnertownship to join the Back ship is working jointly to put Mountain Community Partner- weight limits on Old Route 115. ship in applying for a grant to Sutton said the problem is build a centrally-located build- caused by the number of stoping to house emergency supplilights on Highway 309. He said es. The grant would also in- truck companies tell their drivclude a request for additional ers to travel on Old Route 115 as

"We would love to restrict

One resident brought up the which would provide a new dangers of the many deer ticks street sweeper, a new brush in the township, saying these cutter and a Bobcat with a mill- deer ticks carry diseases such ing head for road repair. The as Lyme disease and other equipment would be used joint- more dangerous viruses. Sutton agreed to the seriousness of

"Don't take it lightly," he told

Another resident reported that a 911 emergency vehicle Resident Tom Jiunta asked took 35 minutes to reach his what could be done about in- home on Jumper Road during a creased truck traffic on Old medical emergency. Cragle Highway 115. Chairman Dave said he would call 911 the next

The next regular board of supervisors meeting will be held "We're worse off because we at 7 p.m. on Monday, Dec. 19 in

Scenes from BMT trail fundraiser

Bernard and Roberta Walter, left, and Karen and Glenn Johnson greet each other at the reception desk.

Sean Robbins and his mother Jacqui Robbins, of Shavertown, enjoy the dinner.

Cydney Faul-Halsor and Sid Halsor arrive at the dinner.

Some of the Joan Harris Dancers representing the Back Mountain communities in the school's annual holiday show are, from left, first row, Alexandra Jayne, Hunlock Creek; Lucy Reilly, Jackson Township; Caroline Conrad, Dallas; Anna James, Jackson Township; Janice Lisman, Shavertown; Kelsey Hall, Dallas; Kelsie Sincavage, Shavertown. Second row, Alyssa Dragon, Trucksville; Lauren Slavoski, Shavertown; Kierra Gross, Trucksville; The Grinch, Whoville; Anna Giacometti, Dallas; and Victoria Fulton, Dallas.

Harris dancers

Back Mountain is well represented in troupe's annual holiday show.

A tradition for families from around the region for the past 30 years, the Joan Harris Dancer's Holiday Extravaganza serves as the perfect break from all the distractions that come with the season. The event is deliberately intended to capture the spirit of the holidays and begins as soon as the audience enters the theater.

The regional dancing troupe presents "A Whoville Christmas" at 1 and 5 p.m. on Saturday, Dec. 3 and at 2 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 4 at the E.L. Meyers High School Auditorium in Wilkes-Barre.

The pre-show entertainment will feature traditional carols and live music performed by the Harris Conservatory Choir and piano students from Ripple Effects Music School, and Christine Lean-dri's School of Music. The performance opens with a large productions number in the Spectacular and never loses pace as the songs progress from traditional favorites to contemporary renditions of the music that defines this most magical time of Traditional dances, inspirational lyrical pieces, narrative story telling and good old-fashioned song and dance routines will be staged to a plethora of seasonal classics. Highlighting the holidays In Whoville will be a production of "The Grinch."

The imaginative multimedia piece directed by Sean Harris uses various forms of contemporary dance and song to relay Doctor Seuss' classic tale of the coldhearted Grinch and how his spirit was warmed by the kind citizens of Whoville. Many of the nearly 500 local dancers participating in the weekend performances are from the Back Mountain commu-

The Joan Harris Dancers will also host a Toys for Tots Drop in partnership with the United States Marine Corps. All attending are invited to bring with them a new, unwrapped toy to donate to this cause and help spread some joy to area children.

Tickets for A Classic Christstyle of the Radio City Christmas mas are $10 in advance and $12 at the door and are available at the Joan Harris Centre's campus in the Harris Conservatory in Lu-

For more information, call 287-

Puzzles, Page 2

Continued from Page 1

er than eliminating local zoning control completely. Yoniski said Baker voted in favor of the bill, despite disagreeing with anything that would take away zoning control from municipalities. He said she supported many of the provisions for local emergency responders and specific guidelines to ensure public safe-

The next partnership meeting will be held at 3 p.m. on Thursday, Dec. 15 in the Sandy & Marlene Insalaco Hall at Misericordia University.

Continued from Page 3

enjoy the ride."

Marley said his foray into the cycling world happened when he was 26 years old when he and a friend decided to buy the same bike, called a Motobe- just enjoy it now." cane, at a shop in Cherry Hill,

"Every time we would ride we would say, 'Let's moto," said Marley, laughing.

Cycling isn't the only activity Marley enjoys.

The outdoorsman plans to year, run a marathon and do a achieve his lofty goals. little more fishing.

Reaching his long-awaited goal doesn't mean he's going to hang up the bike, either.

"I don't see myself quitting cold turkey," he said. "But I am going to cut back so that I can Marley said it's important to stay physically healthy as one ages, and staying athletic has been one of his major priorities in life since he was younger.

"My dad died at 50 of a massive heart attack," he said.

Marley credits his wife, Jahike Machu Picchu in Peru next net, and family for helping him

"I couldn't do it without my

PUZZLE ANSWERS

wife's support and cooperation for letting me do my thing," he said.

 King Crossword — Answers

	,	00	IU	TIC	n	U	m	e:	2	1	nı	ns
	F	A	A		G	E	M		T	E	E	T	Н
	A	D	D		A	X	E		A	L	G	A	E
	C	H	1		F	1	N	A	L	F	0	U	R
	T	0	E		F	L	1	C	K
	S	C	U	M		E	N	E		T	R	U	E
				0	L	D		S	P	H	1	N	X
	T	A	В	0	0				0	R	В	1	T
	E	P	0	N	Y	M		D	1	E
	N	E	W	S		A	G	A		E	X	1	T
					A	G	E	N	T		E	R	E
	L	A	S	T	D	1	T	C	H		N	0	N
	1	D	A	H	0		T	E	E		1	N	S
g	S	E	X	E	S		0	R	E		A	Y	E

Go Figure! ————————————————————————————————————
8	_	2	×	4	24
+		×		+
6	+	9	÷	5	3
÷		+		×
7	+	9	+	3	19
2		27		27

Super Crossword