

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Parents and relatives were invited into the kindergarten classrooms at Wycallis Elementary school during American Education Week. Some of the parents who participated are, from left, Tricia and Bryce Phillips, Ty and Brynn Kaufer, Sandie Vensky and Trinity Basara.

Tricia Phillips was invited to visit her son Bryce for a period in Mrs. Victoria Flynn's class at Wycallis Elementary School during American Education Week.

American Education Week

Parents all across the country visited their children's schools during American Education Week. Parents of kindergarten students at Wycallis Elementary School were especially excited to visit their children's classrooms for the first time this school year.

CHILI COOKOFF WINNERS ANNOUNCED

Cub Scout Pack 155 recently announced the winners of its second annual chili cookoff. This year's event, billed as "The Repeat," featured 22 chili recipes made by leaders and parents of Scouts in Pack 155 as well as by some members of the Trucksville United Methodist Church. The various recipes, which included entries such as "Lip Lickin' Rib Stickin' Chili," "Chili Willi" and "Be Prepared," were voted on by those in attendance. From left, are second-place winner Nicole Fleschut and her daughter Ella, first-place winner Chris Zaboski and her son Nick and third-place winner Shannon Hunt with her daughter Brenna and son Ryan.
