

The Dallas Post

www.mydallaspost.com

Community Newspaper Group
THE TIMES LEADER

15 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, Pa. 18711 • 570-675-5211
news@mydallaspost.com

Joe Butkiewicz
EXECUTIVE EDITOR
829-7249
jbutkiewicz@timesleader.com

Dotty Martin
EDITOR
970-7440
dmartin@mydallaspost.com

Diane McGee
ADVERTISING
970-7153
dmcgee@timesleader.com

The Lake-Lehman Foundation has established a scholarship in memory of John Peter Farrell, a member of the Lake-Lehman School district Board of Education who was killed in an automobile accident in April 2011. From left, are James McGovern, superintendent, Lake-Lehman School District; Mrs. Lorraine Farrell, widow of John Peter Farrell; and Bill Holena, treasurer, Lake-Lehman Foundation.

Scholarship honors late Lehman school director

The Lake-Lehman Foundation has established a new scholarship to be presented in memory of John Peter Farrell, a member of the Lake-Lehman School District Board of Education who was killed in an automobile accident in April 2011.

Farrell's wife, Lorraine, and his family have established the annual $500 scholarship that will be presented to a graduating Lake-Lehman High School senior student at the Lake-Lehman Foundation Tea on April 15.

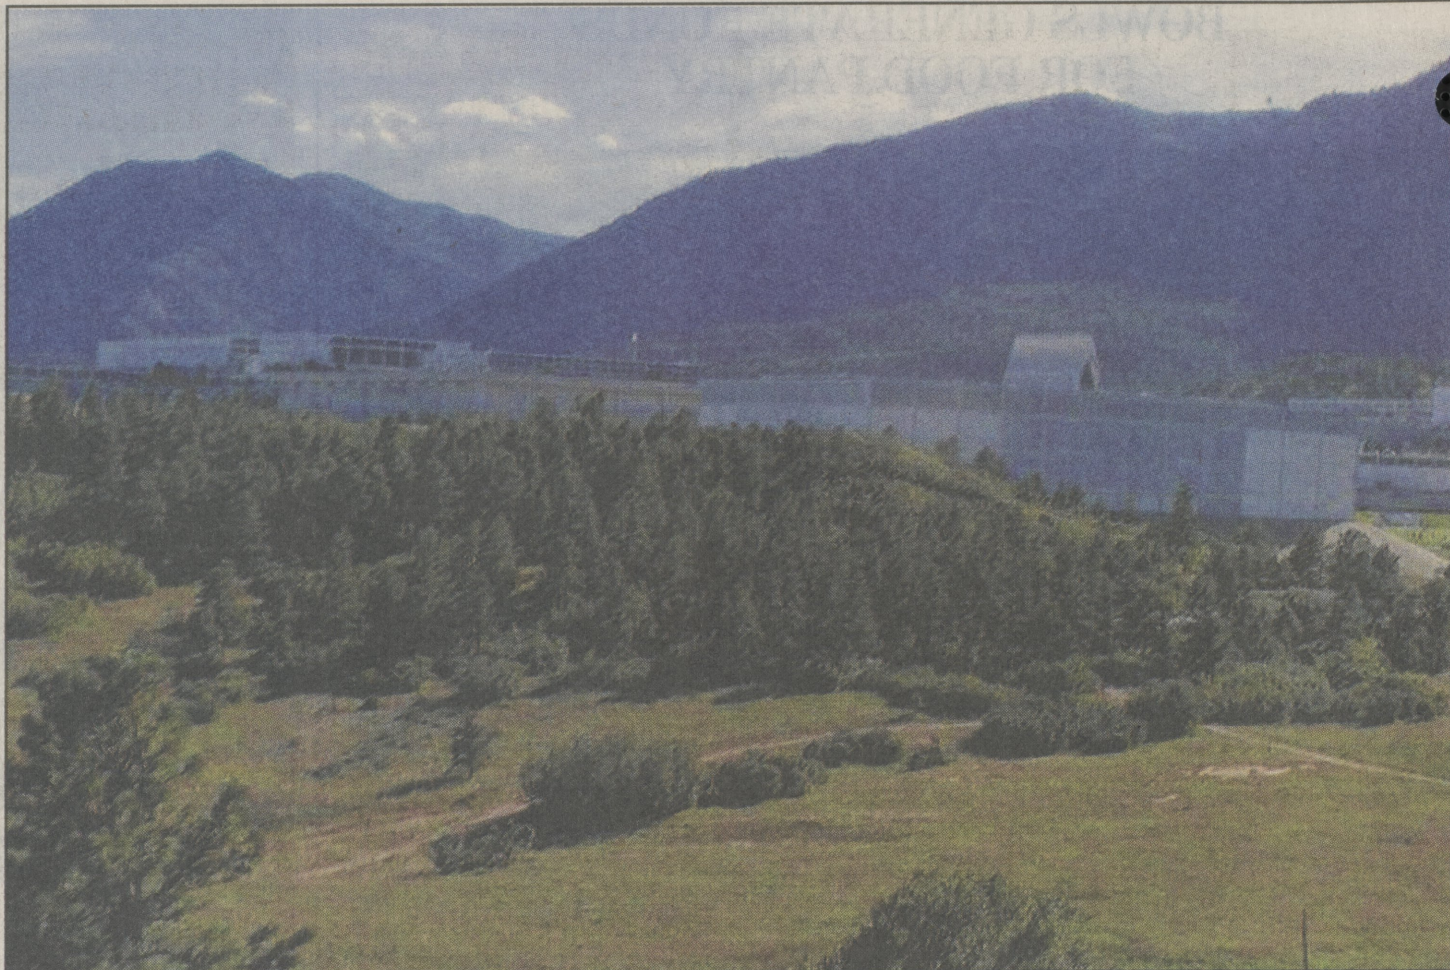

Farrell was a respected and well-liked board member who served as vice president and on various subcommittees throughout his tenure on the board.

A resident of Harveys Lake, he was active in his community, serving as a member of the Harveys Lake Lions Club and the Harveys Lake Sons of the American Legion Post 967. He had been employed as head custodian at the Wilkes-Barre Area School District Administration Building for many years.

Other scholarships presented by the Lake-Lehman Foundation include the Lake-Lehman Foundation Scholarship, Knights of the Round Table Scholarship, Constance Petroski Krupinski '51 Memorial Scholarship and the Nicholas Drahus Jr. Memorial Scholarship.

Lake-Lehman students can apply by visiting the Lake-Lehman Foundation web site at www.lake-lehman.k12.pa.us and clicking on the "foundation" tab or by stopping by the high school guidance office for an application.

Donations for any of the scholarships can be made to the non-profit Lake-Lehman Foundation Scholarship Fund at Lake-Lehman Foundation, P.O. Box 277, Lehman, PA 18627.

YOUR SPACE

This picture of the United States Air Force Academy was taken by Allan Hobbs of Harveys Lake on a recent trip to Colorado Springs. Allan says the scene is truly a beautiful setting with the Rocky Mountains providing a background.

"YOUR SPACE" is reserved specifically for Dallas Post readers who have something they'd like to share with fellow readers.

Submitted items may include photographs or short stories and should be sent via e-mail to news@mydallaspost.com, by fax to 675-3650 or by mail to The Dallas Post, 15 N. Main St., Wilkes-Barre, PA 18711.

Information must include the submitting person's name, address and telephone number in the event we have questions. Readers wishing to have their photos returned should include a self-addressed/stamped envelope. Items will be published in the order in which they are received.

The editor of The Dallas Post reserves the right to reject any items submitted for publication.

20 YEARS AGO - 1992

Nicole Elizabeth Clemson, daughter of Trudy Clemson, Dallas, was awarded third place in the Beautiful Baby Contest sponsored by the March of Dimes Birth Defects Foundation of Northeastern Pennsylvania. The contest was held at the Wyoming Valley Mall and winners were chosen based on community votes.

Sixth grade students Michael Casey and Jeff Eyet recently won the school-level competitions in the National Geographic Society's fourth annual National Geography Bee, a contest in which students answered 10 questions on world geography. They now have a chance to compete for a $25,000 scholarship. Casey is a student at Lake-Noxen Elementary School, while Eyet attends Lehman-Jackson Elementary.

30 YEARS AGO - 1982

Several members of Lake Lehman High School's Theater Production Class visited the Pediatrics Unit at Nesbitt Memorial Hospital. Under the direction of Jean Johnson, English teacher, the students read Christmas stories and distributed gifts to each of the patients. Members who participated are: Buck Culver, Donna Ide, Ron Swire, Brock Bullock, Brian Yanchik, Sally McGinley and Mark Evans.

Top Salespersons (or lucky drawers) in the Trucksville P.T.O. Candy Sale Contest were recently awarded prizes. For every $10 of candy sold, students were eligible for a ticket in the barrel and a chance at winning a prize. Top salesman was Edmund Yudiski who earned himself a ten pound candy bar. Other prize winners were: Kelly Janosky, kindergarten (camera); Joseph Kaleta, second grade (television) and Sarah Yanchanis (clock radio).

40 YEARS AGO - 1972

Debbie Philo, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Lee Philo of Wyoming RD 3, will be installed later this month as Worthy Advisor of the Rainbow Girls of Charles James Memorial Assembly 144. Debbie is a senior at Dallas High School.

Gate of Heaven's Altar and Rosary Society celebrated a Mass installing their new officers. Newly-installed officers are: Mrs. Vince Correale, president; Mrs. John Hawk, first vice president; Mrs. John Thompson, second vice president; Mrs. Thomas Newman, treasurer; Linda Scholl, financial secretary; and Mrs. Richard Malak, secretary.

50 YEARS AGO - 1962

Marguerite Hackling, Noxen, student in the Homemaking department of Lake-Noxen schools, won first place with her evening gown at the State Farm Show in Harrisburg this week. Marguerite was one of four Lake-Noxen homemaking students to have exhibits at the show. The others were: Caroline Ide, wool dress; Bonnie Gennetts, cotton dress; and Eileen Crane, cotton dress.

Homer B. Moyer, Dallas, vice president and comptroller since January 1960, was elected director of Miner's National Bank at the annual meeting.

60 YEARS AGO - 1952

Elevation of Rev. Francis Kane, administrator of Gate of Heaven School, to pastorate of Our Lady of Victory, Harvey's Lake, and Gate of Heaven Parish, Dallas, was announced at services at St. Therese's on Sunday. Father Kane, in the year of his connection with St. Therese's parish, has made his place in the community as well as in the church. He has proved himself not only an able administrator, but immensely popular with old and young.

Co-chairmen for the annual Woman's Club dance to be held at Irem Temple Country Club February 9 are Mrs. Howard Weiner Jr. and Mrs. Thomas Shelbourne. Other committee members: Mrs. Harold Smith, decorations; Mrs. J. Franklin Robinson and Mrs. Robert Van Horn, reservations; Mrs. Norman Patton, hostess; Mrs. Marian Harter and Mrs. William Clewell, door; and Mrs. Mitchell Jenkins, publicity.

70 YEARS AGO - 1942

Miss Florence Hausch, leader, entertained members of the Alderson Girl Scouts at a Christmas Party at the home of Mrs. Raymond Garinger Saturday afternoon. Games were played and gifts exchanged. Present were: Lillian Lerch, Wilma Zischek, Nellie Kitchen, Dorothy Jones, Audrey Traver, Ruth Traver, Emma Hunsinger, Naomi Hunsinger, Eleanor Humphrey, Elaine Avery, Esther Taylor, Elizabeth Sorber, Lois Avery, Mary Delaney, Joyce Hoover, Doris Rossman, Barbara Biery, Bethia Allen, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Rossman, Mrs. George Armitage, Mrs. Alda Garinger and Arnold Garinger.

Piano pupils of Mrs. Wesley Oliver and Mrs. Harold Rood presented two Christmas musicals of solos, duets and Christmas carols at the home of Mrs. Oliver in Shavertown on Wednesday and Friday evenings of last week. Taking part in the Wednesday recital were: Nancy Ness, Dorothy Mitchell, Barbara Clark, Louise Hazletine, Louise Dodson, Doris McCarthy, Doris Kirkendall, Harris Cooke, Robert Jewell and Ralph Templin. Friday evening selections were played by: Barbara Major, Ann Peterson, Harriet Jean Williams, Rose Mary Bonn, Nancy Swartz, Patricia Manning, Helen Leocas, Marilyn Ohlman, Mildred Ide, Claire West, Ruth Scott, Janet Post, Phyllis Williamee, Ann Emery, George Swartz, Harrison Cooke, Peter Manning, Williams Leocas and John Davies.

Information for "Only Yesterday" is taken from past issues of The Dallas Post which is 122 years old. The information is printed here exactly as it appeared in the newspaper years ago.

"HOW WOULD YOU SPEND A MILLION DOLLARS?"

"I would share the wealth so nobody feels left out and take care of my family and then other people."

Jonah Rosengrant
Harding

"I would give some to charity like the Parkinson's Association, put some toward college and buy a beach house."

Taylor Davies
Dallas

"Take a nice vacation around the world and then live in Puerto Rico for a long time."

Chris Tamanini
Kingston Twp.

"Travel across the United States on a motorcycle, invest, start a business and pay off my student loan."

Mary Henry
Hanover

"Pay off the mortgage, save for the kids, give to charity and have less stress."

Beth Reddington
Dallas

"Pay off my school bills, take care of my kids, live off the interest, vacation and play golf."

Frank Ferris
Dallas