Film and discussion series continues at PSU

The Department of Continuing Education at Penn State Wilkes-Barre announces the spring personal enrichment film and discussion series schedule.

Penn State Wilkes-Barre has once again partnered with R/C Wilkes-Barre Movies 14 to host a film and discussion series celebrating the Titanic, ending on the evening of the Titanic's sinking 100 years ago: "Titanic Tech," "Ghosts of the Abyss," "A Night to Remember," "Raise the Titanic" and "Titanic (1953)."

All film screenings will be held at R/C Wilkes-Barre Movies 14 in Downtown Wilkes-Barre at 7 p.m. on Thursday evenings beginning March 22 and running through April 12 with the last night to be held Sunday, April 15.

Pre-film lecture notes and thought stimulating post-film discussion will accompany each screening in the series. Guest speakers will be featured at the screenings to speak on a variety of Titanic-related topics.

Bill Bachman is the instructor for the fall movie series. He has taught a variety of communications offerings on the Wilkes-Barre campus since 1986. He currently teaches basic public speaking, public speech writing, mass media and society, propaganda and persuasion and media effects. The film series started as a 1-credit academic course on the Penn State Wilkes-Barre campus by Bachman nine years ago.

For more information, contact Rachel Rybicki, Marketing Communication Specialist, at 675-9269.
