Outreach group reaches out

Lake-Lehman Community Outreach has been in existence since 2009 and was created and funded by teachers, staff and administrators. The goal of those involved with the program is to give back to the community by sharing resources and time.

Each member makes a monetary contribution and, in turn, the program provides financial assistance to groups such as local fire departments, Lake-Lehman Foundation, Blue Chip Animal Refuge and other organizations that help students, parents and neighbors.

Teachers, staff members and administrators have conducted food collections and clothing drives for the Back Mountain and Noxen Food Pantries. Additionally, contributions have also been used to support student events in the district such as the annual se-

MU Alumni plan Easter egg hunt

Annual event attracts hundreds of participants to Back Mountain campus.

Misericordia University's Annual Easter Egg Hunt and Brunch with the Easter Bunny, sponsored by the Alumni Association, will be held Saturday, March 31.

Children and their families will have an opportunity to meet the Easter Bunny, have brunch and participate in an egg hunt on the front lawn of the Banks Student Life Center.

A brunch, including scrambled eggs, French toast, sausage, home fries, hot dogs, chicken fingers, pastries and beverages will be served in the Cougar's Den.

Event coordinator is Lailani Augustine, alumni services assistant. Tickets are $10 for adults, $5 for children from 5-12 years of age and free to children under the age of 5. There are two seating times for the brunch: 10 to 11 a.m. and 11:15 a.m. to 12:30 p.m.

The egg hunt will be held for all participants sharply at 11 a.m., rain or shine. Space is limited. Reservations are required and can be made by calling the Misericordia Alumni Box Office at 674-6768.

Sara DeRosa, 6, of Lehman Township, left, and Selina Albert, 11, of Coal Township, pose with the Easter Bunny at the annual Misericordia University Alumni Associations Easter Egg Hunt and Brunch with the Easter Bunny on campus. Sara was the winner of a $20 gift card from Target after finding the Golden Egg and Selina was the winner of a $15 gift card from Target after finding the Silver Egg. The annual event attracted 235 adults and children.
