Wyoming Area grabs a 3-2 victory over Lady Mountaineers softball team.

Serra Degnan knocked in the winning run with a two-out triple in the seventh inning, giving Wyoming Area a 3-2 victory over Dallas in a Wyoming Valley Conference Division I East softball game.

Warrior pitcher Nicole Cumbo had a no-hitter through five innings with five strikeouts but was down, 1-0, after Dallas scored in the fifth on two Warriors errors. In the sixth, Dallas parlayed its only hit of the game, a triple to deep right by Katy Comitz, into a second run on an infield out to lead, 2-0.

The Warriors trailed, 2-0, entering their final trip to the plate.

Dallas pitcher Taylor Baker, who worked out of trouble in every inning but the seventh, got a strikeout to start the seventh and the Warriors were down to their last two outs with no base runners.

Lindsay Carey tied the score at 2-all with a single that scored Nicole Tuner and Emily Wolfgang. Turner had walked and Wolfgang reached a double.

Degnan then knocked home Kate Coolbaugh, who ran for Carey.

Police Association plans annual Kids Fishing Day

The Back Mountain Police Association will hold its sixth annual "Kids Fishing Day" from 7:45 a.m. to noon on Saturday, May 5 at Frances Slocum State Park.

Over 120 children ages 6-10 will fish for 1,000 trout (including several trophy-sized) in a net-enclosed area of Frances Slocum Lake. A handicapped-accessible dock is provided for children with special needs. Loner fishing poles, bait and tackle will be provided.

In addition to fishing, the children receive a gift, have lunch, take part in fishing instruction classes, create a t-shirt with a fishing theme, view police K-9 demonstrations, receive fire prevention education inside a fire safety smoke house and have opportunities to interact with uniformed law enforcement officers alongside their vehicles and equipment.

The event is free of charge. Following the event, six active duty soldiers from Walter Reed
