

ROSS ELEMENTARY EMPLOYEES TAKE PART IN CASUAL DAY

Employees of Ross Elementary School took part in the Northeast Regional Cancer Institute Ninth Annual C.A.S.U.A.L. (Colon Cancer Awareness Saves Unlimited Adult Lives) Day on March 29. C.A.S.U.A.L. Day is a dress-down day where individuals purchase and wear awareness t-shirts and pins to spread the word about colorectal cancer prevention and screening. All proceeds from C.A.S.U.A.L. Day support the ongoing efforts by the Cancer Institute to raise awareness about colorectal cancer risk factors and the importance of screening in northeastern Pennsylvania. The teachers at Ross Elementary chose to take part in memory of a former employee, Mark Steele, who passed away from the disease. From left, first row, are Shannon Kreidler, Becky Keefe, Tracey Stanley, Jen Welby, Donald James. Second row, Kelly Dougherty, Kim Chopyak, Jill Vanderhook, Corin Frey, Alice Stuart, Megan Nice, Stacey Pellegrino, and Melissa Jarnot. Third row, Justin Feinauer, Jeremy Williams, Janice Slimak, Alysia Jones, Erin Yurko, Janna Kabosky, Melissa Smielski, and Amy Thomas.

Misericordia announces commencement speaker

Kerry Robinson, M.A.R., executive director of the National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management, will be the guest speaker when Misericordia University holds its 86th annual commencement ceremony at 2 p.m. on Saturday, May 19 in the Anderson Sports and Health Center on campus.

A baccalaureate Mass will precede the ceremony at 10:30 a.m. in the Anderson Center.

During the commencement ceremony, Misericordia will present Mrs. Robinson and her husband, Michael Cappello, M.D., professor of medicine and director of the World Fellows Program at Yale University, with honorary Doctor of Humane Letters degrees.

The National Leadership Roundtable on Church Management is dedicated to promoting excellence and best practices in the management, finances and human resource development of the Catholic Church in the United States. The Leadership Roundtable exists to strengthen the temporal affairs of the church by harnessing the expertise and resources of Catholic senior-level executives from all sectors in service to the church.

Mrs. Robinson is also a member of the Raskob Foundation for Catholic Activities in Wilmington, Del., and of the Foundations and Donors Interested in Catholic Activities (FADICA) board of directors.

She has served as a trustee on the national boards of the Education for Parish Service Foundation in Washington, D.C.; the Gregorian University Foundation in New York, N.Y.; the National Catholic AIDS Network in San Francisco, Calif.; the Institute for Religious Education and Pastoral Ministry at Boston College, Chestnut Hill, Mass.; and the Center of Applied Research in the Apostolate in Washington, D.C.

Since 1995, she has served on the national committee for the U.S. Catholic Conference of Bishops' Catholic Campaign for Human Development and is a trustee of the National Pastoral Life Center in New York. Currently, she serves on the advisory boards of the Center for the Study of Church Management at Villanova University, Villanova, and Busted Halo: Paulist Young Adult Ministry.

Mrs. Robinson is the founding editor of "The Catholic Funding Guide: A Directory of Resources for Catholic Activities," first published by FADICA in 1998. She has been an advisor to grant making foundations, charitable nonprofits and family philanthropies since 1990.

She served as the director of development for Saint Thomas Moore Catholic Chapel and Center at Yale University and led a fundraising campaign to expand and endow the chapel's intellectual and spiritual ministry and to construct a Catholic student center on Yale's campus. Mrs. Robinson spent two years in London, England, working for the Director of Social Change, an organization dedicated to providing information and training for the nonprofit sector in the United Kingdom and Europe. She is also a frequent writer and speaker on the subjects of philanthropy, development and the Catholic Church.

In 1988, she received her Bachelor of Arts from Georgetown University and in 1994 earned her Master of Arts in religion degree from Yale Divinity School.

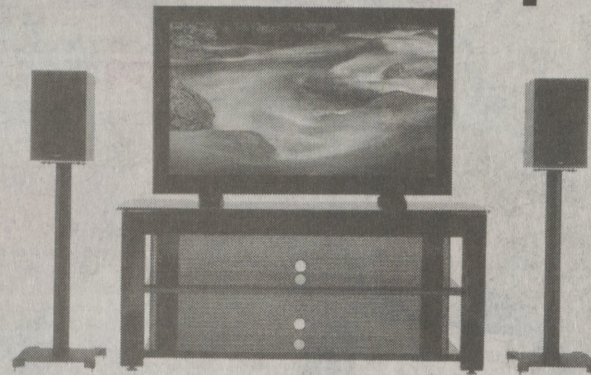

She and Dr. Cappello have two children, Christopher and Sophia.
