

Athletics Wall of Fame announced

Brian D. Stanchak, Penn State Wilkes-Barre Director of Athletics, announces this year's inductees into the Penn State Wilkes-Barre Athletics Wall of Fame. They are Charles Boughton, Jill Chocallo, James Miliauskas and Philip Navola.

Charles Boughton
Athletic Director (1970 - 1980)
Boughton was the first athletic director in the history of Penn State Wilkes-Barre, serving as athletic director and physical education instructor from 1970-1980. While at Penn State Wilkes-Barre, he was instrumental in the addition of several sport programs, including men's basketball, cross country and soccer. In addition to developing the men's basketball team, he also served as head coach. He was recognized by Penn State Wilkes-Barre for his accomplishments in 1974 with the Hayfield Award.

Jill Chocallo
Basketball and volleyball (2006 - 2008)

Chocallo was a two-sport athlete who excelled at both basketball and volleyball at Penn State Wilkes-Barre.

A founding member of the 2007-08 women's basketball team, she was captain and team MVP. She was also a member of the 2006 and 2007 volleyball teams in which she again earned the title MVP.

Her accolades did not stop on the court as she was awarded the 2007-08 John C. Egli Female Student-Athlete Award (most prestigious PSUAC award) and the 2006-07 John Kolesar Outstanding Athlete Award.

Chocallo was a dean's list student during her years at Penn State Wilkes-Barre and graduated from University Park in 2010 with a degree in elementary education.

James Miliauskas
Golf and tennis (1989 - 1991)

Miliauskas was a two-sport athlete at Penn State Wilkes-Barre where he played tennis and golf, serving as captain and earning Most Valuable Player honors. He finished his collegiate tennis career with a 10-2 record and also excelled on the golf course where he was named 1989-90 and 1990-91 EPCC All-Conference and CCAC All-Tournament.

In addition, he was a member of the first-ever Presidents Golf Cup Championship and graduated from University Park in 1994 with a Bachelor of Science degree from the College of Health and Human Development in Recreation and Parks Management.

Philip Navola
Golf and tennis (1989 - 1991)
Navola was a two-sport athlete during his tenure at Penn State Wilkes-Barre from 1989-1991.

While participating in tennis, he became a CCAC State Singles Champion and received team MVP honors. During his two years of tennis, he collected multiple CCAC/EPCC All-Conference awards.

Additionally, he was a member of the school's golf team where he received All-Conference and All-Tournament honors and was a member of the first-ever Presidents Cup Championship.

In honor of his accomplishments, he received the 1989-90 John Kolesar Outstanding Athlete Award.

Navola was selected to the 1991 edition of Who's Who in American Junior Colleges and went on to continue his education at University Park where he received a Bachelor of Science degree in Quantitative Business Analysis in 1993.
