Mom Prom a hit

Moms gathered in their old prom gowns, bridesmaids dresses and wedding gowns to attend the local mom Prom at Irem Country Club. Mom Prom is a national ladies-only prom event that benefits the Greater Northeast Chapter of the American Foundation for Suicide Prevention. It is a real prom with a DJ, a tackiest dress contest and a vote to crown the queen, not to mention a night to dance, enjoy friends and help a worthy cause. Cardboard cut-out "dates" were provided.

Art students graduate

Seven Back Mountain graduating seniors from Sue Hand's Imagery, representing four area high schools, will hold their senior art exhibit at Sue Hand's Imagery, 35 Main Street, Dallas, on May 21 and May 22.

The 12th-grade students include Kristen Boyle, Shavertown; Kathryn Cohen, Shavertown; Rachel Madeira, Dallas; Chelsea Martin, Dallas; Christine McCarthy, Dallas; Alyssa Miller, Dallas; and Sarah Pomfret, Dallas. They will be joined by eight other high school students from the Wyoming Valley and the Tunkhannock area.

All seven students have received numerous art awards for their drawings and paintings in many varied art contests and exhibits.

The public is invited to view the exhibit from 9 a.m. to 8 p.m. on Monday, May 21; and from 9 a.m. to 6 p.m. on Tuesday, May 22. A meet-the-artist reception and graduation ceremony will take place from 6 to 8 p.m. on Monday, May 21.

risk to several artesian wells in the area and asked Chief if they would pay for the testing of the water.

"I don't want to see high concentrations of bentonite destroy our wetlands," she said.

Doughton agreed that residents should have their water tested, but said it can be very costly.

A chief official said he'd look into the request.

In other business, the board adopted the 2012 International Property Maintenance Code Ordinance which regulates and governs the conditions and maintenance of all property, buildings and structures.

In an effort to crack down on rowdy college house parties and other renters and homeowners who cause disturbances, the board voted to advertise a "Disorderly House Ordinance" and impose penalties.

The board also adopted the Wyoming Valley Sanitary Authority Industrial Pre-Treatment Ordinance, which is a countywide ordinance setting regulations and fee schedules for municipalities that contribute into the sanitary authority.
