Open House at RSA

Rock Solid Academy held an Open House recently at its new location at Twin Stacks Center on Route 415. The school was open for interested parents and students to visit and learn about educational programs. A ceremony honored Rock Solid volunteers.

Celanie Atiyeh, right, and her daughter Casey Strachan, of Plains, look for a Christian alternative to public education in the Back Mountain by attending the open house for the Rock Solid Academy in the Twin Stacks Complex, Dallas.

Smith receives highest Seminary award

Lillian Davis Smith, Dallas, recently received the Joseph C. Donchess Distinguished Service Award for demonstrating exceptional service to the community and Wyoming Seminary. The award is the highest bestowed by the Seminary Board of Trustees. Smith, a member of the Wyoming Seminary Class of 1953, began her career in the Elmira College admissions office and later taught first grade at the Alexander Robertson School in New York City. She also worked as an admissions counselor at Wyoming Seminary Upper School and has served the school on the Alumni Council and as an alumni Trustee and member of the Board of Trustee's executive committee. She has also been a dedicated Sem Phonathon volunteer and regularly attends Reunions. In addition, she volunteered with the Red Cross at Bellevue Hospital in New York City. In Luzerne County, she was a 20-year member of the Junior League and served on the board of the Old Ladies' Home, where she worked on the development and planning of the current Heritage House. Most recently, she chaired the Smith committee for the restoration of the Forty Fort Meeting House.
