Thanking the VETERANS

Downtown Dallas was a sea of red, white and blue Monday morning as the 2012 Memorial Day Parade, sponsored by the Daddow-Isaacs American Legion, stepped off. Boys and girls, men and woman of all ages came out to support parade participants and to pay respect to those who have fought for our country.

The American Legion Post 672 Honor Guard posts the colors.

Thomas Yoniski, right, field representative for state Sen. Lisa Baker, gives the principal address as Dallas Mayor Tim Carroll, left, and American Legion Chaplain Clarence Michael and Post 672 Commander Arthur Spencer look on.

The crowd gathers in downtown Dallas to watch the annual Memorial Day Parade and ceremony.
