PEOPLE BRIEFS

Adonizio receives Bishops Award

Julia Adonizio, daughter of Patrick and Judy Adonizio, of Harveys Lake, received the Bishops Youth Award for 2012.

She was nominated by her school, Good Shepherd Academy, to receive the award.

The recipients of the award were honored at a mass at St. Peter's Cathedral in Scranton officiated by Bishop Joseph C. Bambera.

Adonizio is an eighth-grade student at Good Shepherd in Kingston and plans to attend Holy Redeemer High School in the fall.

Esopi named to dean's list

Monica Esopi, of Dallas, earned dean's list recognition for the spring 2012 semester at Penn State, University Park.

To achieve dean's list distinction, students must be full-time and earn at least a 3.5 out of a possible 4.0 grade point average.

A 2010 graduate of Dallas High School, Esopi is completing her sophomore year and is majoring in Chemical Engineering. She will do a summer session in Todi, Italy.

Two inducted into English Honor Society

Cory Templeton, of Trucksville, and Paul VanLoon, of Dallas, were among The University of Scranton students inducted into Sigma Tau Delta, the National Honor Society in English.

This organization is for stu-

into honor society

Nicole Clemson, of Dallas, was recently inducted into Phi Sigma Tau, the national honor society for philosophy at The University of Scranton.

Membership requires a major or minor in philosophy as well as excellence in philosophy works. Induction is based on nomination and voting results of philosophy faculty and current members of the society.

Clemson is a junior at the Jesuit university.

Two recognized by MU Nursing Dept.

The Misericordia University Department of Nursing recently recognized the academic accomplishment of its top graduates, including Lisa Bolton, of Trucksville, and Christine Reese, of Dallas, at the annual Honors and Awards Ceremony in Lemmond Theater in Walsh Hall on campus.

The students received Bachelor of Science degrees in nursing, while Cadman earned a Master of Science degree as a family nurse practitioner.

Bolton was presented with the M. Bernadette Hogan Nursing Award even annually to a graduating student who exemplifies outstanding service and leadership to the profession of nursing and to the greater community.

Reese was awarded the Clinical Excellence Award given to a student whose grade point average is greater than 3.0 and who is judged by the faculty to administer superior nursing skills in clinical practice.

Stamatic receives history award

Sydney Stamatic, of Tunkhannock, was awarded the Misericordia University History Department Award for High Achievement at the annual Honors and Awards Ceremony in Lemmond Theater in Walsh Hall on campus.

Kelly receives Fine Arts Award

The Department of Fine Arts at Misericordia University recently presented Jeffrey Kelly, of Dallas, with the Fine Arts Award at the annual Honors and Awards Ceremony in Lemmond Theater in Walsh Hall on campus.

The Fine Arts Award is presented to a graduating senior who excels in any of the non-literary fine arts and who has demonstrated a high level of academic achievement.
