DHS Civics students honored

Fourteen students from Dallas High School were recognized June 3 at the Student Leadership in Civics Recognition Brunch held at the East Mountain Inn.

Members of the club are Blake Alexander Donovan, Christopher Ehret, Angelina Marie Hoidra, David Miller, Eric Charles Novroski, Sarah Angela Pomfret, Andrew Michael Santora, Rebecca Lynn Schnable, Thomas P. Tidey, Skyler David Velazco, Marcus Jonathan Wagner and Aaron Weir.

Point of Light Awards were created as a way for the students to acknowledge those students who have gone above and beyond. An award was created for each point of the star on the insignia the members created.

Students also agreed that, in order to make these awards more meaningful to both the students and the organization, they would be named after members of the Dallas High School Family who best symbolize and model that behavior in the school community.

Point of Light Awards have been named for Mary Yankowski, Honest Point of Light Award; Laura O'Malley, Service Point of Light Award; Lois Redmond, Civics Point of Light Award; Nancy Garvey, Respect Point of Light Award; and M. Jay Pope, Leadership Point of Light Award.

A recognition brunch for 14 students of Dallas Senior High School who are members of the Student Leadership in Civics organization was held at the East Mountain Inn in Plains.

Program slated for BMT library

Members of the summer reading program, "Dream Big! READ!" at the Back Mountain Memorial Library are invited to take part in the two special programs scheduled for June.

Susan Gallagher, chief naturalist with the Carbon County Environmental Education Center, will present, "Bat Chat" from 1 to 2 p.m. on Tuesday, June 19 where participants will learn the facts and fiction of bats found in our area and view one up close.

All ages are welcome to attend but registration is required. Call the library at 675-1182.

The second program is the Luzerne Libraries System Program at King's College at 10:30 a.m. on Thursday, June 21.

"Life in Space," a Franklin Institute show developed in conjunction with NASA, begins with a bang as a rocket launches participants into space. Once there, participants will enter "astronaut training" to explore the challenges of living and working in space. They will become "satellites" to communicate findings back to earth.

Plant donations sought

Donations for the plant booth at the Back Mountain Memorial Library Auction are being sought.

Anyone wishing to donate plants is asked to call Cheryl Whitesell at 256-0109.

LEGGIO'S DONATES TO ROCK SOLID ACADEMY

Rock Solid Academy received a donation from Leggio's Italian Ristorante to support classroom technology needs for the upcoming school year. The Leggios will give two additional gifts for two individual Student Learning Centers (SLC). One center will be on behalf of the Leggio family and the other is donated in memory of Christine Pascucci, Lori Leggio's sister; and Frank Pascucci. Salvatore and Lori Leggio are shown here in a classroom at Rock Solid Academy.
