dents), too," he said. "We teach them about healthy eating, like we serve them fruit and vegetables as snacks."

Melanie Selner, 8, of Shavertown, said playing with the Wii games console was her favorite part of the camp because she could dance along to her favorite songs.

"I like the Wii because it gets you active," she said. "The Ika song is my favorite. I like to dance with friends."

Adam Walp, 8, of Harveys Lake, likes volleyball the most, but enjoyed showing off his dance moves to his friends during the camp, too.

"Fitness is important because exercise makes muscles," he said.
