

Anzalone is Rockette Alumnae member

Barbara Woronko Anzalone, of Shavertown, was sworn in as a member of the board of directors of the Rockette Alumnae Association in New York City by alumnae trustee Fern Dion Gedney on June 24.

The swearing-in ceremony took place at the Arsenal in Central Park and was witnessed by other members of the board of directors.

The Rockette Alumnae, a group of former Radio City Music Hall Rockettes, supports a number of charities, including the USO, NYU Infant Simulators, Breast Cancer Research, Alzheimer's Foundation, Career Transitions for Dancers, The Actor's Fund and the Russell E. Markert (Rockette Founder) Dance Scholarship at Julliard.

At the end of 2012, as a component of the recent Russell E. Markert Award for Choreography, the benefiting charity will be chosen by present-day Radio City Music Hall Rockette choreographer Linda Haberman.

nized in 1955, is to promote the philanthropic and social usefulness of the association and to foster the close bond of friendship among its alumnae members.

Anzalone has been a benefactor in Wyoming Valley, instructing young dancers, models and entertainers at her studio, the NEPA Academy of Dancing in Edwardsville.

She is known as a former Miss Pennsylvania USA 1967, a member of the original cast of the legendary ABC TV series "Dark Shadows" where she played the role of Nurse Pritchett and as a former member of the internationally known Radio City Music Hall Rockettes. She is also author of the book, "The Girl Next Door."

She is married to Dr. Ange Anzalone.

Taroli-Gelsleichter engagement

Alison Marie Taroli and Eric Gelsleichter, together with their families, announce their engagement and approaching marriage.

The bride-to-be is the daughter of Attorney and Mrs. Garry and Kathleen Taroli, of Dallas. She is the granddaughter of Marilyn Taroli and the late Henry J. Taroli, of Kingston, and the late John and Rita Bustin, of Forty Fort.

The prospective groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. William and Nadine Gelsleichter, of Tunkhannock. He is the grandson of the late William and Ginger Gelsleichter, of Wilkes-Barre, and the late Murray and Doris Hoyt, of Wilkes-Barre.

Ms. Taroli is a 2003 graduate of Bishop Hoban High School. She received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from King's College in 2007. She earned a Master of Science degree in Natural Resources Policy from the State University of New York and a Juris Doctorate from Syracuse University in 2010. She is presently employed as a patent and trademark attorney at Steptoe & John-

Mr. Gelsleichter is a 2003 graduate of Tunkhannock Area High School. He received a Bachelor of Science degree in Chemistry from King's College in 2007. He is currently completing his Doctorate in Veterinary Medicine at Virginia Tech in Blacksburg, VA.

The couple will exchange vows on Oct. 13 at The Highlands in Dallas.

BRIEF

MU prof studies in Switzerland

Stevan Davies, Ph.D., professor of religious studies at Misericordia University, participated in the 2012 National Endowment Summer Institute, "The Legacy of Ancient Italy: The Etruscan and Early Roman City," from June 5-25 under the direction of P. Gregory Warden, Ph.D., president of Franklin College, Lugano, Switzerland.

The summer institute's research was based on four major themes: archaeology and urban identity in early Italy; Etruscan and Roman urbanization; economy, trade and cultural formation in the early Mediterranean; and the consequences of assimilation, appropriation and conquest of the Etruscans by the Romans.
