Cub Scouts tour WB/Scr. Airport

Scouts from Cub Scout Pack 155 recently toured the Wilkes-Barre/Scranton International Airport in Avoca. During the two-hour tour, the Scouts were able to see how to purchase a ticket for a flight and were taken to other areas of the airport, including the security area and an airplane hanger where they were able to get a closer look at a jet and a turbo-prop airplane. The Scouts also were able to tour the airport fire station where they saw one of the airport fire trucks in "action." Pack 155 is sponsored by the Truckville United Methodist Church and meets every round. For more information, contact Russ Banta at 696-2833 or log onto cubpack155.com.
