

Meadows residents celebrate 50s party

The Auxiliary of Meadows Nursing and Rehabilitation Center in Dallas recently sponsored a 50s themed party for residents. The activity department planned the afternoon filled with music, 50s style attire and root beer floats. Residents, volunteers and staff members enjoyed singing along with entertainer George Rittenhouse.

A special thank you goes out to Mark Otway for displaying his classic 1953 Ford Mainline at the event.

Socials such as these are made possible with funds from the Auxiliary's "Market on the Pond" and annual membership drive.

Meet the authors at WRGN Radio

WRGN will host a Meet-the-Authors event at 7 p.m. on Friday, Aug. 17 at its station, State Route 118 near Pikes Creek.

Local authors Karen Morgan and Ruth Joy Capozzi will be honored guests to discuss their respective books.

Ruth Joy Capozzi, of Berwick, survived an abusive relationship. She has traveled the road to healing and restoration by continually grasping God's outstretched hand of help.

She is married to Pastor Alfred Capozzi and is the executive director of a pregnancy resource center.

Her book "With Tender Hand" walks women who feel stuck in an abusive relationship through the journey to hope, healing and restoration.

Karen Morgan, of Dallas, had her life turned upside down when her young, active husband, who was Wilkes-Barre Ministry coordinator with Northeastern PA Youth for Christ, was diagnosed with stage 3 cancer and given a 40 percent chance of survival. Morgan's daily inspirational e-mails updated family and friends and provided hope and encouragement to those supporting the family and were eventually published in book form, "Morgan Update: Please Forward."

Morgan is the wife of Pastor Wayne Morgan and mother of three children.

The Meet-the-Authors event will kick off the 10th anniversary of the Good News Library at WRGN.

One-year memberships are available for a $5 donation. The library's collection includes nearly 15,000 DVDs, audio CDs and books.

For reservations to the Meet the Authors event, call 1-800-245-3688 or visit www.wrgn.com.
