WYOMING VALLEY YOUTH FOOTBALL CONFERENCE

Jr. Mounts continue win streak

B TEAM

Dallas 32
Plymouth 8
The Dallas Jr. Mounts continued their winning ways this week with a 32-8 win over the Plymouth Indians.

Jacob Esposito opened the scoring for the Jr. Mounts with a 15-yard run around the right side.

Steven Newell added another with a run around the left behind key blocks by Sean Cuba and Blaine Rex.

Plymouth closed the gap with a second quarter touchdown to bring the halftime score to 16-8.

Newell opened the second half with a kickoff return for a touchdown and then later took a swing pass from Esposito to seal the game.

The Dallas defense was tough all day long, giving up only three first downs.

Led by Xander Shaner and Ethan Scoscia, the Jr. Mounts defense had multiple tackles for loss.

Jack Zeyher added a fumble recovery to the tenacious performance by the defense.

This week's game against the Back Mountain Bobcats will see both teams enter the game undefeated in a rematch of the first round playoff game from last year.

C TEAM

Dallas 42
Plymouth 6

The Dallas Junior Mounts C-team recorded its second victory in as many tries, beating the Plymouth Indians, 42-6.

The Dallas defense was impressive, holding the Indians to one score late in the game.

The defensive line controlled the line of scrimmage and shut down Plymouth with repeated stops in their backfield.

The Dallas offense was clicking on all cylinders with Jared Adamski leading the way with two touchdowns.

Brennan Eggleston, and Ayden Berndt also tallied one TD apiece.

Rookie Duane Craig scored his first touchdown, carrying the ball six times on an impressive drive and finally bulling his way into the endzone for the score.

The Junior Mounts look to remain undefeated, taking on the 2-0 Back Mountain Bobcats today.
