

Elisabeth Harris tabbed by Moscow Ballet

The Moscow ballet has again chosen Dallas resident Elisabeth Harris to serve as the regional coordinator and trainer for its production of the classic Great Russian Nutcracker at the F.M. Kirby Center in Wilkes-Barre as part of its 70 city international tour. The performance at the Kirby is scheduled for 7:30 p.m. on Sunday, Dec. 3.

Ms. Harris has choreographed over 20 ballets in her career, including "Coppelia," "La Fille Mal Gardée," "Swan Lake," "Don Quixote," "Puss in Boots" and the original work, "Corciev." Her students have performed professionally with the Joffrey Ballet, the American Ballet Theater, the New York City Ballet and the Tampa Ballet.

Ms. Harris was worked with the Moscow Ballet since 2000. This production requires a local cast of experienced dancers to perform the roles children, snowflakes, mice and other supporting characters. The ballet will cast children ages 7 to young teens at 1 p.m. on Sunday, Sept. 9 at the Harris Conservatory for the Arts.

All area dancers are invited to try out. The auditions will be directed by Svetlana Todinova, Moscow Ballet's audition director and soloist for over a decade. Dancers interested in auditioning for a role in the Great Russian Nutcracker should contact the Harris Conservatory at 718-0673 for more information.

Elisabeth Harris works with Lindsay Sherrick, of Hunlock Creek.
