Dallas team improves to 3-0 with last weekend win over Back Mountain Bobcats.

B TEAM

Dallas 22
Back Mountain 12

The Dallas Junior Mounts improved to 3-0 this weekend with a hard-fought battle with the Back Mountain Bobcats, coming out on the winning end of a 22-12 score.

The Bobcats struck first with a Lenny Kelly touchdown run to a 50-yard drive.

Dallas countered with a Todd Phillips run to make the score 8-6. Back Mountain took the lead into halftime following a long run by Casey Kaminski.

The Dallas offense opened it up a little with two touchdown passes from Phillips to Jacob Esposito behind great offensive line play from Matt Farrara and Brett Thomashunis.

Matt Fried, Taylor Bolesta and Ethan Mooney led a tenacious defensive effort in the second half, shutting down the Bobcats to seal the victory.

C TEAM

Dallas 12
Back Mountain 8

The Dallas Junior Mounts remained unbeaten at 3-0 by defeating the Back Mountain Bobcats, 12-8.

The Dallas offense started out fast, scoring two touchdowns, both by Brennan Eggleston who received outstanding blocking from the offensive line of Tal Richards, JR Redmond, Parker Bolesta, Bryce Chopyak and Alex Hajikowski.

Tight ends Lucas Shultz and Devin Richards, in addition to backs Jared Adamski, Duane Craig and Matt Lukasavage provided excellent downfield blocking on the TD drives. The offense moved the ball methodically with two long-scoring drives, adding up to the 12-0 lead.

Right before halftime, the Back Mountain offense got on track, scoring a TD and 2-point conversion.

Dallas received the kickoff in the second half, marching down the field and had first and goal on the Bobcats' 9-yard line. Three penalties pushed Dallas back to the 29 and the Jr. Mounts punted.

With the game on the line, the Dallas defense, consisting of Nick Spencer, Josh Peters, Sawyer Cristman, Nick "The Fridge" Binek-Moshey, Mitch Burgess, Mike Ropetski, Matt Esposito and Ayden Berndt had to come through to preserve the victory.

The Bobcats went on a drive of their own, getting all the way to the Dallas 2-yard line with just three minutes remaining in the contest. The Jr. Mounts defense stiffened with Brennan Eggleston making a touchdown-saving tackle, causing the Bobcat runner to fumble the ball into the end zone. Linebacker Mike Ropetski recovered.

The Dallas offense took possession and ran out the clock by gaining two first down to seal the win.
