

DMS Student Council is off to busy start

The Dallas Middle School Student Council, under the direction of Mrs. Joan Rakowski, is off to an active start to the school year.

The council supported the Dallas Harvest Festival by campaigning for middle school Principal Dr. Thomas Duffy to be selected as the "Kiss the Pig" winner at this year's festival. Monies collected will benefit the Back Mountain Food Pantry.

The first student council dance is scheduled for 7 p.m. on Sept. 21 at the middle school.

Other current and upcoming student council activities include First Friday School Spirit Day including a sno-cone sale in the cafeteria, a cookie dough sale and the annual food drive to support the Back Mountain Food Pantry.
