

Ed Plank, of Sweet Valley, makes a catch at Harveys Lake.

Shannon O'Donnell, 10, of Kingston Township, plays tennis with her mom, Sandi, at the Kingston Township Park.

Jack O'Donnell, 7, of Kingston Township, goes for the ball as his dad, John, backs him up at the Kingston Township Park.

Twelve-year-old Jack Ziembra, of Kingston Township, rides a jet ski on Harveys Lake.

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

GOODBYE to summer

With weather as hot as it was this summer, Back Mountain residents not only found ways to keep cool – they also found ways to have fun. Whether it was golfing, playing tennis or jet skiing on the lake, Mother Nature provided plenty of opportunities to make the best of the summer months. But, as all good things do, summer must come to an end – and fall weather is now upon us.

AT RIGHT: Gerard Belardinelli, of Trucksville, rides his bike around Harveys Lake.

Ruth McEvoy, left, of Kingston, and Tish Last, of Wilkes-Barre, chat before teeing off at the Dallas Lions Club Golf Tournament at Newberry Estates.

Don Berlew, left, of Dallas, left, distributes tee assignments to Dallas Lions Club Golf Tournament participants at Newberry Estates.

Lions golf event benefits library

The Dallas Lions club held its first-ever golf tournament on Sept. 23 at the Newberry Estates Golf Course. Joe Czarnecki was chairman of the event which benefitted the Back Mountain Memorial Library.

David Spring, of Dallas, watches his drive on the first tee at the Newberry Estates Golf Course.

Tish Last, of Wilkes-Barre, waits to tee off at the Dallas Lions Club Golf Tournament at Newberry Estates in Dallas.

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST