seed in the playoffs with a victory.

C TEAM

Kingston Twp. 20
Ed-Lark 12

The Kingston Township Raiders C team upended the Ed-Lark Hurricanes in a decisive 20-12 victory on Sept. 30.

Ethan Capitano scored on both a 52-yard and a 43-yard touchdown run and led the team with 157 total yards. R.J. Wren connected with Jacob Koretz for a 12-yard touchdown pass after Nick Nocito set up the play with an impressive 30-yard run.

The Raiders defense held the Hurricanes to only two touchdowns. Cole Vonderheid, Jack DelGaudio and Jack Luke contributed to the team's victory.

The C Team improved its record to 5-2 on the season.

Dallas 16
Swoyersville 6

The Dallas Jr. Mounts C team picked up a pair of wins the past two weeks, beating Swoyersville, 16-6, and West Pittston, 14-6.

In the Swoyersville game, the Jr. Mounts held an 8-6 lead going into the fourth quarter. The Swoyersville offense took the ball inside the red zone where the Dallas defense stiffened, keeping the Sailors' offense out of the endzone with a goal line stand, throwing Swoyersville back four consecutive times.

The Dallas offense took over and executed a 99-yard drive, capped off by a Brennan Eggleston touchdown. The drive took most of the time off the clock and put the game out of reach for a Swoyersville comeback.

Against West Pittston, the stout Jr. Mounts defense once again played exceptionally, giving up an early TD but nothing afterward.

In the fourth quarter with the clock running and the score tied at 6-6, the Dallas offense went to work, driving the ball into the red zone. The Jr. Mounts came through again with Jared Adamski connecting with wideout Devin Richards for a touchdown pass, putting the Dallas boys up, 12-6.

Adamski called his own number on the try for 2 and bulled his way into the end zone for a 14-6 lead. With time running out, the Rams switched quarterbacks but the Dallas defense responded by thwarting four sweeps. Dallas took over on downs and ran out the clock.

D TEAM

Dallas 24
West Pittston 6

The Dallas Jr. Mounts D team added another win to the 2012 season by defeating the West Pittston Rams, 24-6.

From the first possession of the game, the offensive running attack was solid with running backs Gavin Adamski, Ryan Cuba, Jace Chopyak and Mark Karcutskie sharing ball carrying duties.

The offensive line, consisting of Nate Malarkey, Brady Rosencrans, Andrew Bednar, Nick Farrell, Dylan Geskey, Cody Konnick and Lucas Tirpak opened holes and blocked hard for the running backs.

The defensive line, led by Joey Peters, Colby Klinetob, Keith Hughes, Luke Hajkowski and Noah Moran was repeatedly in the West Pittston backfield, forcing two turnovers and holding the Rams to just six points.

Defensive backs and linebackers Mason Calvey, Myles Tirpak, Gavin Adamski, Mark Karcutskie and Ryan Cuba kept the rest of the Rams' offense contained, helping the Jr. Mounts improve to a 5-2 record.

The Jr. Mounts will be at home today against Duryea.

The final regular season game for the D team is a bye against the Kingston Township Raiders on Oct. 14. The first round of playoffs will begin on Oct. 21 at a field to be determined.

SPORTS BRIEFS

Sullivan named to All-Tournament Team

Lake-Lehman graduate Cat Sullivan was a vital reason the RIT Tigers went 4-0 at the SUNY IT Invitational Volleyball Tournament.

RIT defeated Cazenovia in four sets and Sage College in three on Friday. The following afternoon, the Tigers beat the host Wildcats, 3-1, and had little trouble with Old Westbury, sweeping the Panthers.

Sullivan was consistent for the Tigers. The senior had eight kills in each of the first three matches and then slammed six against Old Westbury in the finale. Sullivan added 11 blocks and earned All-Tournament honors.
