Sunday, October 7, 2012

THE DALLAS POST

DALLAS HIGH SCHOOL CLASS OF 2002 HOLDS 10TH ANNIVERSARY REUNION

The Dallas High School Class of 2002 held its 10th anniversary class reunion recently. The reunion activities began at noon as several classmates met for a tour of the new Dallas High School building, guided by Dallas School District Superintendent Frank Galicki. Galicki was high school principal when the class graduated in 2002. Later, nearly 30 classmates plus guests gathered for food and conversation at the Metro Bar & Grill in Dallas. Classmates took time to remember classmates Brad Lothridge and Arthur Redmond, who have passed away since graduation. From left, first row, are Ryan Rother, Jen Toth Krofchok, Elizabeth Eby, John Katorkas, Diane Werts Morse, Brad Glatz, Ryan Kastenbaum, Laura Fauerbach Briffa, Kelly Jacobs Steidl, Meredith Nagy Cortese. Second row, Rebecca Rowett Griffis, Amber LaJeunesse, Tim Faneck, Ryan Morgan, Dan Mulhern, Michelle Mancke Waschek, Toni Watkins Zinck, Peter Miller, Patrick Zinck, Brandon Pall, Stephanie Jury Kachinko, Casey Noreika, Jeff Jumper, Ron Boback, Robin Haines, Paul Saxon, Maria Stevens and Brittany Willis.

CHURCH BRIEFS

Spanish Bible Study every Sunday

Back Mountain Harvest Assembly offers a Spanish Bible Study from 9:45 to 10:45 a.m. every Sunday at the church, 340 Carverton Road, Trucksville.

For more information, call the church office at 696-1128 or Luis/Stefano Rosario at 706-1005

Tall rummage sale

planned The Lehman-Idetown United Methodist Women will hold their annual fall rummage sale from 9 a.m. to 4 p.m. on Friday, Oct. 12 and from 9 a.m. to noon on Saturday, Oct. 13 (Bag Day) at the church, Mountain View Drive, Lehman.

A lunch and bake sale will be held on Friday with homemade vegetable soup sold for $5 a quart. Gently-used clothing and items may be dropped off at the church through Oct 10. No large items or electronic items will be accepted.

Fall Festival at Muhlenburg church The Muhlenburg United Methodist Church will hold its eighth annual Fall Festival from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. on Saturday, Oct. 13 on the church grounds. The event includes crafts, games, face painting, vendors, baked goods, cider and apples from Heller's orchard, food prepared by the church and much more.

To reserve a table, call Chris at 256-3697.

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Mary and Doug Ehret talk about the life of their son, Corey, as they are flanked by event committee members Jenny Cave, left, and Kelsey Sincavage.

Students walk on the track at Mountaineer Stadium before the start of the Corey Ehret Cancer Benefit sponsored by the Dallas Mini-THON committee.

Dallas junior Lily Amadio, of Shavertown, lights one of the candle lanterns surrounding the football field at Mountaineer Stadium.

lalking in memory of Corey he Back Mountain community remembered Corey Ehret on Sept. 30 at the Dallas High School Mini-THON's "Candle Light Walk for Cancer in Loving Memory of Corey Ehret" at Dallas High School's Mountaineer Stadium. Hundreds of area residents attended the walk in memory of Ehret, who passed away from cancer on July 22, 2012, shortly after graduating from Dallas High School and of anyone who has battled cancer. Candle lanterns, which were pre-ordered and sold at the event, were lit to remember those who have passed away from cancer.

PAGE 11

CHARLOTTE BARTIZEK PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Joe and Susie Malak, of Dallas, are happy to return to a new Dallas Senior Center location in the Twin Stacks Center, Dallas.

Continued from Page 1

were expected.

Mary Lou Thompson from Dallas Township attended the opening. She attended the old center once or twice before its closing, but was not comfortable there. But she was pleased with the new location. "I'm glad they got out of there," she said of the former building that housed the senior center.

"We waited a long time for this," said Hughey.

Dallas resident Beverly Honthe reopening of the center, saying it gives her the chance to get looks forward to.

Member Claire Adams said it beautiful. was hard to find the door of the eywell was very excited about Barbara Messner, of Dallas, will enjoy the use of a computer at the new senior center at the Twin Stacks Center in Dallas.

out of the house, something she Stacks building is so big but add- ticeable marker for the door. ed that the new location was Hollywood said the agency is 26 at noon. The event is open to new center because the Twin working on getting a more no- the public.

The new center will hold a grand opening at noon on Oct.

tinued from Page 1

er kids to complete their goals," said Carla Pilger.

shirts made to be the official B matter what troop you are in. I Liz Lynch said. "But we also uniform of the troop, in memo- think it says a lot about the gained an Eagle Scout."

always wore tie-dyed pajama Santora. pants on camping trips. "He liked to stand out," said the younger Pilger.

his death, he is helping oth- lives," said Ron Santora, Scout fundraising to complete but is Master for Troop 281. "That's well on his way. his legacy. This is a brother-

ry of their friend Lynch who program of Scouting," said McAndrew has almost completed all of the requirements to become an Eagle Scout with "Tom continues to impact Troop 281. He still has some

"When Tom had the acci-Troop members had tie-dyed hood of Scouting. It doesn't dent, we lost an Eagle Scout,"

Kevin, 9 and Jessica Allen, 7, of Dallas, pose for a picture with Misericordia University students, from left, Brittany Bressler, Chalfont; Stephanie Lamanna, Hillsborough, N.J.; Katerina Kindig, Mechanicsburg; and Morgan Ream, Conestoga, during the annual safe trick-or-treat event on campus last year.

Youngsters can trick or treat safely in residence halls at Misericordia

The Misericordia University treating will be McHale, Gildea, dren, including face painting and p.m. on Sunday, Oct. 28.

Area residents are invited to tion. bring their children to campus and visit a number of the univer- so sponsor a trick-or-treat fair and sity's residence halls. The halls provide a variety of Halloween- contact Annmarie Narcum, Resi-

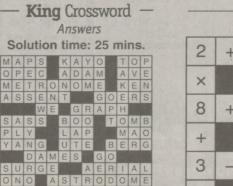

PUZZLE ANSWERS

The Residence Life staff will al- of the upper campus. that will be open for trick-or- themed activities for the chil- dence Life Office at 674-6178.

Department of Residence Life Alumni and Monsignor Andrew crafts. The fair will be located on will offer a safe trick-or-treat J. McGowan halls. The buildings the first floor of Michael and Tina event for children from 3 to 5 will be marked with pumpkin MacDowell Hall, the campus' decorations for easy identifica- new multi-purpose building, located just inside the North Gate

For additional information,

Puzzles, Page 2

	C	ansv	gure! wers			1.54
2	÷	3	×	4	20	PES AVI HAR
×		×		×		E L F D Y L I C O T H O
8	+	6	÷.	7	2	HER
+		+		-		ESS PIT SNE OCE
3	-	1	×	9	18	FIL
19		19		19		A L I D E N E A T

