Boback to recognize vets

Striving to reach out to honor and thank as many local veterans as possible in the 117th Legislative District, Rep. Karen Boback (R-Luzerne/Columbia/Wyoming), in conjunction with Misericordia University and several local veterans' organizations, encourages all veterans and their families to participate in her annual Veterans Recognition Event to be held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, Nov. 3 at Misericordia University's Lemmond Theatre in the Walsh Auditorium.

A Veteran's Expo will follow with local agencies and organizations offering information to support veterans. Refreshments will be served.

Representative Boback is a member of the House Veterans Affairs and Emergency Preparedness Committee and subcommittee chairman of Military and Veterans Facilities.

The Department of Veterans Affairs' mobile veterans center will be on hand to assist veterans. This event will offer free blood pressure checks and stroke prevention screenings to all attendees.

This event provides a unique opportunity for students in local schools and colleges and universities to interact with local veterans who served in combat from World War II to the present.

This free event is also open to non-combat veterans and those who were deployed during times of war.

Veterans can register by calling 477-3752 or 836-4777.

FOR THE RECORD ...

A story in the Oct. 14 issue of The Dallas Post requires a clarification. The story indicated that the issue of moving the Harveys Lake Police Station from its current location to the borough's recreation building on Little League Road was discussed at public work sessions dating back to the beginning of 2011. The issue was discussed in an email circulated among then council members in March 2011, indicating the issue would be discussed at the next work session. Harveys Lake Borough officials, however, do not keep detailed minutes of work sessions. Therefore, it is not known whether or not the issue was discussed at a work session.
