

Ethan Capitano of the Kingston Township C team looks for an opening in the WWWE defense.

Bradley Adams runs the ball for the Bobcats against West Pittston in the A team Super Bowl.

Back Mountain's Devin Dickson runs the ball as West Pittston's Anthony Shaver pursues in the A team Super Bowl.

JUST SUPER

Dallas Jr. Mounts B team is perfect again, wins fifth straight Super Bowl.

The Dallas Jr. Mounts concluded their fifth straight perfect season with their fifth consecutive Super Bowl Championship by defeating the WWWE Panthers, 14-6, on Oct. 28.

Dallas took its first possession 60 yards to paydirt. Todd Phillips hit Jacob Esposito on a 15-yard out to convert a critical third down. Phillips then sat in the pocket created by Colin Zeiss, Brett Thomashunis, Sean Cuba, Ethan Scoscia, Matt Farrara and Blake Chok to hit Esposito in the corner of the end zone to give Dallas a 6-0 lead.

On the ensuing kickoff, Hunter Love raced down field to jump on the loose ball. Phillips then stood behind a crushing block by Xander Shaner to hit Steven Newell on a swing pass that Newell caught and ran 40 yards to give Dallas a 14-0 lead.

Then the Dallas defense took over. Taylor Bolesta, Daniel Hodle, Matt Fried, Brandon Schultz, Jack Zeyher, Christian Sebastianelli, Ethan Mooney and Jack Farrell made a goal line stand in the second quarter to keep the score at 14-0 at the half.

The Dallas defense was relentless all day, making several tackles in the back field.

The Panthers finally got into the endzone on a 5-yard run around the left side with less than two minutes left in the game.

Dallas then converted a first down on a Newell run up the middle and ran out the clock to seal the victory.

BILL TARUTIS PHOTOS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

Dallas' Steven Newell, center, hands the ball to umpire Bill Ermish after scoring a touchdown as teammate Sean Cuba looks on.

Dallas Junior Mounts' Todd Phillips, right, runs to his left as WWWE's Lincoln Heck pursues in the B team Super Bowl.

Kingston Township's R.J. Wren, right, runs a sweep as WWWE's Leonardo Haros pursues in the C team Super Bowl.

The 15 seniors on the Dallas girls soccer team and their parents were honored during Senior Night. From left, are Chloe Alles with Joe Alles, Leah Benedetti with Renee and Paul Benedetti, Ashley Dunbar with Wendy and Randy Dunbar, Wendy Greenwood with Ken and Bonnie Greenwood, Brittany Harris with Sandra and Ken Harris, Taylor Hodle with Richard and Karen Hodle, Luisa Klemm with Karen and Jeff Klemm, Tess Macarty with Leesa and Ross Macarty, Courtney Phillips with Debbie Phillips, Lauren Rando with Dawn Pugliese and George Rando, Talia Simon with Joe Simon, Danielle Spencer with Gloria Spencer, Abrianna Tolomello with Sal and Jane Tolomello, Kendra Vanesko with Jeff and Sandy Vanesko, and Amber Yang with Kou and Shouana Yang.

Dunbar scores 100th, DHS seniors honored

Ashley Dunbar hit a milestone, scoring four time to reach 100 goals for her soccer career at Dallas High School in a 12-0 route of the Preppers of MMI Prep recently. Dunbar's four goals all came in the opening 22 minutes. Talia Sztatkowski added three goals of her own for the Mountainers while Ashley Strazdus scored twice. Prior to the game, 15 senior members of the Dallas High School squad and their parents were honored. Seniors honored include Chloe Alles, Leah Benedetti, Ashley Dunbar, Wendy Greenwood, Brittany Harris, Taylor Hodle, Luisa Klemm, Tess Macarty, Courtney Phillips, Lauren Rando, Talia Simon, Danielle Spencer, Abrianna Tolomello, Kendra Vanesko and Amber Yang.