

Lake-Lehman fullback Dustin Jones, right, runs through a hole in the defense as Dallas' Mark Michno goes for the tackle.

Miranda Dembrowski cheers on the Lake-Lehman defense from the football stands.

Lake-Lehman's Tom Donovan, left, just misses catching the ball for a touchdown ahead of Dallas defender Ryan Kozloski.

One 'Old Shoe' worth wearing

BILL TARUTIS/ FOR THE DALLAS POST

The Dallas football team after defeating Lake-Lehman.

Dallas defensive tackles Logan Bullock and Buddy Shutlock led a defense that held Lake-Lehman to minus 17 yards on 31 carries as Dallas posted a 51-06 victory to clinch the final District 2 Class 3A spot and earn the right to take the coveted Old Shoe trophy back to Mountaineer territory.

Dallas was scheduled to play at Berwick (9-1) in the D2-3A semifinals on Saturday.

The Mountaineers won their seventh consecutive game and were kept alive for a district spot when Coughlin defeated Crestwood.

Dallas let Bullock a 6-foot, 260-pound senior, cap the scoring with a 1-yard touchdown run late in the fourth quarter. He finished with two carries for 5 yards, leaving running back Kris Roccograndi (117 yards, 2 TDs) firmly entrenched in the starter's role.

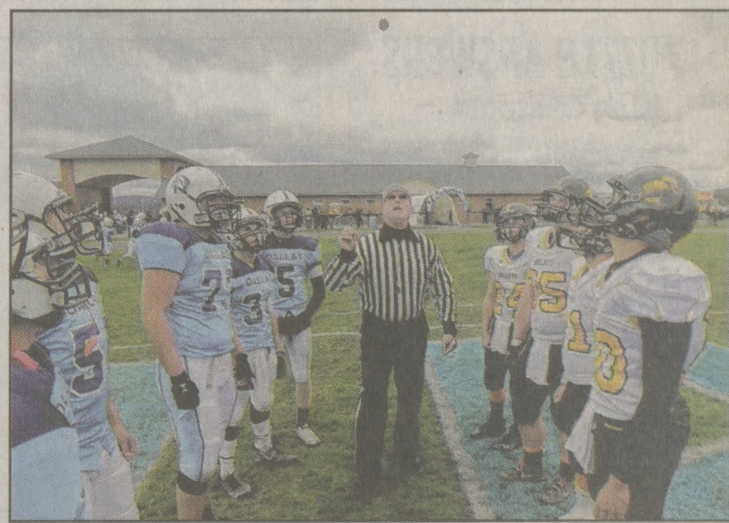

Shutlock came close to an interception in the second quarter when Jason Simonovich tipped a pass at the line of scrimmage. The 6-4, 260-pound senior finished about a step short of hauling in the deflection.

The Dallas football team holds up the coveted Old Shoe trophy after defeating Lake-Lehman, 51-6.

Running back Kris Roccograndi takes the ball to the goal line.

Referee Earl Harris handles the pre-game coin toss with Dallas and Lake-Lehman team captains.

Bullock hammered Lehman 1,000-yard running back Dustin Jones for a 1-yard gain the first time Lehman had the ball. On Lehman's next two possessions, Shutlock startled them with tackles for minus 2 yards and no gain.

Dallas quarterback Ryan Zapoticky, who had over 1,300 passing yards entering the game, threw only seven times. His only TD pass was a 6-yarder to Simonovich to make the score 36-6.

Dallas quarterback Ryan Zapoticky throws a screen pass against Lake-Lehman.

Lake-Lehman cheerleaders root for the Black Knights.