October TERRIFIC Kids named

TERRIFIC Kids for the month of October have been named at the Dallas Elementary School.

TERRIFIC Kids is an acronym that stands for T-thoughtful, E-Enthusiastic, R-responsible, R-respectful, I-Inclusive, F-

Friendly, I-Inquisitive, C-Capable.

Betsy Jerome, guidance counselor at Dallas Elementary started the program as a school-wide approach to encourage positive behavior, character traits and leadership within the school.

The winners are chosen monthly and are given the opportunity to participate in a community or school-based project. The goal for the program each month is for the older students to guide the younger TERRIFIC Kids each month.

PEOPLE BRIEFS

MU students participate in walk

Lisa Perugino, of Dallas, and Amy Austin, of Sweet Valley were among the Misericordia University students who participated in the "A Walk in Her Shoes" to benefit Ruth's Place House of Hope shelter.

Redinski works as intern

Nicole Redinski, of Shavertown, is working as an intern this fall for the Forum for Undergraduate Student Editors (FUSE). She is a senior majoring in creative writing at Susquehanna University.

Redinski's responsibilities include the design, upkeep and management of the organization's national website, fuse-national.com, which connects undergraduate editors, writers and faculty advisers.

A 2009 graduate of Dallas Senior High School, Redinski is the daughter of Marion and Robert Redinski.

Boback receives business honor

State Rep. Karen Boback (R-Luzerne/Columbia/Wyoming) was recently awarded a "Guardian of Small Business" by the Pennsylvania Leadership Council of the National Federation of Independent Business (NFIB) in recognition of her business-friendly voting record for the 2011-12 legislative session.

The "Guardians of Small Business" designations are awarded to legislators who consistently vote favorably on key small-business issues. The votes tracked this session are among the highest priorities of NFIB's small business agenda—a legal reform and regulatory relief, tax and fiscal policy and unemployment and workers compensation reforms.

Librarian is guest speaker
